LADY BANK

Mr. and Mrs. John Graham and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Graham and family at Barrie.

Some winter! About a foot of snow fell on Friday night,

Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Partridge and Shirley of Rock Mills spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Percy Semple.

The Providence War Workers held their last meeting Wednesday of last week, at the home of Mrs. John Graham. when 12 members were present. The work consisted of completing another quilt and blocks given out for another quilt. Three letters from neighborig boys overseas were read by Mrs. Frank Short, thanking the members for boxes and other gifts. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Frank Short on Nov. 24th.

Born — On Sunday, Nov. 14th, at Weston, Ont., to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Semple, a son. Congratulations.

REMEMBRANCE DAY SERVICE HELD LAST THURSDAY

Remembrance Day was observed in Flesherton on Thursday morning, Nov. 11th, when a short service was held at the cenotaph in Memorial Park and a wreath laid by Mrs. J. Cargoe. The parade of veterans, Reserve Army and school children was headed by the Markdale band, which also played in fror of the town hall. At the service in the hall, Mr. F. B. Keys delivered the address. Last Post was sounded by Mr. Jack Perkins of Markdale.

WILSON — FISHER

The marriage of Elsie Marie Fisher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Fisher of Ceylon, to Garland (Gary) F. Wilson, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Wilson, Clinton, Iowa, was solemnized at St. Martin's Church, Fort St. John, the Alaska Highway.

The bride, given in marriage by George C. Andrew, Toronto, Ont., wore a long gown of white sheer, girdled with embroidery motif. The shoulder veil was caught with orange blossoms and her bouquet was white gardenias with streamers of white satin ribbon. Miss Catherine Gerrard of Fairview, Alta., was bridesmaid and wore a frock of misty blue sheer, pink accessories, and carried a prayer book tied with rose buds. The best man was a friend of the groom, Mr. George Coleman of Missouri, U.S.A.

The Rev. Selwyn T. Willis officiated at the service, and during the ceremony Miss Dorothy Williams of Oshawa, Ont., sang "All Joy Be Thine."

The picturesque Anglican Church was filled with the many friends of the bride and groom, representative of almost every part of Canada and the United States. A reception was held at the R. Melville Smith Company reception hall, attractive with wedding decorations and flowers.

The bride's going-away outfit was a beige wool frock, brown velveteen jacket and matching hat, with brown suede accessories.

The wedding was of particular interest, as the bride and groom met on the Alaska Highway Project, where they have been working for the past year. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson will reside in Fort St. John, B.C., as Mr. Wilson is employed with the United States Engineering Division.
