Bonus Continued on Cream Shipments

GREATER THAN EVER is the need for an increased butter production THIS YEAR. This is due to the bigger requirements of our armed forces and overseas shipments.

In order to encourage a HEAVIER CREAM PRODUCTION the Government has announced that it will continue to pay the 10 CENT BONUS without interruption during the coming summer months right up to April 30th, 1945. This is certainly WORTH YOUR CONSIDERATION when you are planning your CAPACITY PRODUCTION for some time ahead.
