Midget B Twisters tops in Oakville

After posting three 1-0 victories in the preliminary round, the North Halton midget B Twisters skated past Flamborough 4-2 to capture the championship at the recent Oakville Hornets' Girls' Hockey Tournament.

Preliminary round—North Halton 1, BAD Blazers 0; North Halton

0, Hamilton Hawks 0; North Halton 0, Flamborough Falcons 0
Championship— North Halton 4, Flamborough 2

The midget B Twisters also made it to the championship game of the Clearview IceCats' tournament before getting edged out 3-2 by Mount Brydges.

YBC fundraiser: An adults-only get-together at Georgetown Bowl Saturday night has been organized in order to raise funds for the quickly growing local branch of the Youth Bowling Council.

Registration for the 2013-14 5-Pin season has grown from 25 kids last year to 65 this time around in what's the 50th anniversary of the YBC.

Proceeds from the fundraiser will go towards the cost of tournaments, registration fees and other YBC activities through the season.

Unlimited Rock & Bowl, a silent auction and a cash bar will be part of the festivities from 8 p.m. to midnight.

Tickets are $15 each and can be purchased at Georgetown Bowl at 12 Mountainview Rd. South.

For more info contact 416-557-8089.

Locals meet in final: A pair of local teams met up in the final of the over-35 division at the Georgetown Hockey Heritage Council's annual men's oldtimers hockey tournament held at the Mold-Masters SportsPlex recently.

Halton Hills Complete Auto skated past its rivals, the Grinders, by a 5-2 score. Rich Miakowski, Mike Lucenti, Matt Martin, Sean Caven and Doug Butler tallied for the champs, with Brent Mulder and Jeremy Mulder responding for the Grinders.

In the 45-and-over category, Grand Valley defeated Georgetown's LMT 8-2 after LMT had beaten that same team 6-3 in the preliminary round. Mike Flynn and Dave Atchison scored for LMT.

Following are the final scores from the other championship games:

50+ D— Classic All-Stars 2, Thursday Thunder 0; 50+ C— Brampton Old Seals 2, Mississauga Last Call 1; 50+ C— Toronto Pok-ey Checkers 3, Hamilton 2; 55+ — Bolton 2, West Mall 1; 60+— Newmarket Old Capitals 2, Guelph

Dogs play cards: Spots at the table are filling up quickly for the Halton Hills Minor Lacrosse Association's annual Poker with the Dogs fundraiser, to be held Friday, Nov. 15 at the Optimist Club of Georgetown's hall.

Cost to buy in is $50 per entry and there will be a maximum of 70 players in the game. Raffles and draw prizes will also take place.

To pre-register, email mccauley8@sympatico.ca, ticktodd@gmail.com or call 647-225-3888.

Clarification: In an article on local go-kart racer Arron Attard published in last Thursday's Independent & Free Press, Cathy Attard was incorrectly identified. She is Arron Attard's stepmother.
