In Memoriam

FENWICK — In loving memory of our dear wife and mother, Mrs. Roy Fenwick, who departed this life, August 3rd, 1943.

We know that she is happy
In our Saviour's home above,
Growing fairer as she lingers
In the sunshine of His love.
—Sadly missed by Husband and Family.

In Memoriam

SIMMONS — In loving memory of a dear husband and father, Walter Robert Simmons, who passed away July 29th, 1925.

Memories are treasures no one can heal;
Death leaves a wound no one can steal,
His happy smile no more we'll see,
But never forgotten will he be.

But some sweet day we'll meet again
Beyond the toil and strife
And clasp each other's hand once more
In heaven that happy life.
— Lovingly remembered by wife and daughters.

In Memoriam

TREMPE — In ever loving memory of our dear mother, Mary Jane Trempe, who passed away August 2nd, 1943
—Allie and Gordon Wauchope.

In Memoriam

MAGEE — In loving memory of our dear daughter and sister, Hazel, who passed away Aug. 7th, 1942.

Oh what would we give to clasp your hand,
Your dear kind face to see;
Your loving smile, your welcome voice
That meant so much to us;
No one knows the silent heartache,
Only thos who have such can tell
Of the grief that is borne in silence
For the one we loved so well.
—Ever remembered by Father, Mother, Sister and Brothers.

In Memoriam

Priestley — In loving memory of our dear husband and father, who passed away, July 16, 1942.

Gone dear father, gone forever,
How we miss your smiling face.
But you left us to remember
None on earth can take your place
A happy home we once enjoyed
How sweet the memory still
But death has left a loneliness
The world can never fill.
Sadly missed and always remembered by wife and family.

88 Years Young

Still wrapped up in her hobby of making quilts and mats, Mrs. Catherine McLeod on Wednesday, July 26, reached her 88th birthday. If any evidence were needed to prove that her fingers have lost none of their deftness despite her ripe age, it would be mentioned that during the past year she has made and quilted about fifty quilts and hooked several mats besides. Mrs. McLeod is interested in all that goes on around her including the progress of the war. She has five grandchildren serving with the King's colors and is most anxious to meet a grand-daughter-in-law, an English girl, whom one of her grandsons, Cpl. James Lawrence, married since going overseas. She has 26 grandchildren. A highly respected, soft spoken woman, Mrs. McLeod is a member of the United Church and is held in high regard by all who know her.

The former Catherine Holley, she was born July 26, 1856, on the Meaford Road, Artemesia township. Twice married, her first husband was James Hopps, From this marriage two children survive, namely: James Hopps, Portlaw, and Mrs. Clifford Bowes, Stratford. Some time after Mr. Hopps' demise she married Daniel McLeod of Flesherton, where she spent the greater part of her life. They also farmed in Priceville district several years. Two daughters and two sons survive from this marriage. They are Mrs. W. J. Wellwood (Alice), Dundalk, Mrs. Robt. Wilson (Tena), Durham, and Herb, a veteran of the last war, who is a patient in London hospital, and John. Another son, Bert, lost his life in an accident at Priceville 15 years ago.

In recent months Mrs. McLeod donated butterfies for a butterfly quilt which she herself made and donated to a group of school children, including two of her grandchildren, the proceeds to go to the British War Victims' Fund. She is now working on three quilts for the same cause. In reading in the Evening Telegram about Mrs. McLeod's gifts a Toronto woman, who refused to devulge her name, sent Mrs. McLeod a consignment of patches. These will form part of those being used for future quilts, at which Mrs. McLeod is almost continually employed. "It helps keep me young," she laughingly comments, in explaining her devotedness to her hobby.
