MOVED LARGE SILO TO ARTEMESIA FARM

(By Vandeleur Reporter)

Mr. Lorne Ormbsy and a few neighbors and Mr. Ellis Weber of Kimberley and his transport truck, performed a fine piece of work on Tuesday of last week, when they moved a large wooden silo, intact, from the former's farm in St. Vincent to his farm in this community. The silo was braced inside and rolled over on to the truck with block and tackle. It stuck out so far behind that coming up hills the tractor had to go ahead with a cable attached to the upper side of the silo to keep the truck from rearing up on its hind wheels. The bumper was also loaded with rocks to balance the load. The silo was so large in diameter and struck up so high that at several places along the road limbs had to be cut from trees to allow it to pass. It was swung from the truck and into an upright position with the block and tackle and when it came to rest it wasn't a fraction of an inch out of its proper place, nor was it damaged to the slightest degree.

A Eugenia man was there buying some implements and saw several large cracks in the heavy clay ground, caused by the dry weather. We will leave the matter at that point.

Crowds Welcome Bill Kerton Home From Italian Front

(Maxwell Reporter)

It was a very happy occasion in Maxwell last Friday evening, when the people of this community had the pleasure and privilege of welcoming back home our first soldier from overseas in the person of Sergt. Bill Kerton, who served with the 8th Army in Sicily and Italy. Bill went overseas in 1939 with the 48th Highlanders of Toronto.

It was a very large and happy crowd which gathered at Flesherton station to meet the evening train. A large number from Flesherton also assisted in the vociferous greeting.

Sergt. Kerton was escorted to Maxwell by several horn-blowng cars, where an informal welcome was extended to him by Rev. O. W. Holmes on behalf of the community. He thanked him as one of our boys who are doing such a grand job over there. Bill replied in a few words, stating how happy he was to be back with his family and friends.

In the evening a large crowd gathered in the Orange Hall to dance and to present Sergt. Kerton and Mrs. Kerton and family of two little girls, Joan and Betty Lou, with a purse of money, as a small token of appreciation felt. The happy party broke up in the small hours with the singing of the National Anthem.

Sergt. Kerton went overseas with the First Division, landing in England the middle of December. The advance of the German army through France in 1940 saw the 48th ready and fit for the fight and they were taken to France, landing at Brest on June 11th. Bill was in charge of the transport and took his unit a considerable distance into France. He became separated from the Battalion, which went by train to St. Malo, while he took his transport back to Brest, which he left behind on June 18th, returning to England. He then went with his unit to North Africa in 1943 and was with them continually through Sicily and Italy until he came back home for a leave, accompanying a load of prisoners, as escort. He has a 30-day furlough.

Three Pound Bass From District Waters

Week end bass fishing around this district was exceptionally good and some splendid fish were caught. If you wish to catch large bass, you are not forced to go to distant fields. At Wilcock Lake Barney Welton caught a three pound bass with a light fly rod and Jack Pawlitzke of London landed a 3¼ pound beauty with bait. Edwin Kay of Toronto and Barney caught ten bass on Saturday weighing 18 pounds.

Messrs. Jack Sutton of Toronto and Charlie Flynn of Brantford each caught 10 speckled trout on Saturday, the former landing a 2½ lb. trout. Speckled trout fishing throughout the district has been exceptionally good most of the summer and some fine average catches have been reported. Many of the streams and ponds have had fish placed therein during the summer and in the past few weeks and some excellent fishing is expected again next year. This country is the acknowledged home of the best speckled trout and every effort is being made to keep it as high class fishing grounds.

BROKE PELVIS BONE WHEN CAR CRASHED

L.A.C. Laverne Wood was seriously injured late Sunday evening as he was on his way to Toronto on his motor cycle, after visiting with his mother in town. Two miles north of Brampton he ran into a car parked on the highway without a light and received a broken pelvic bone and cuts about the face. He was taken to Brampton hospital and later to Christie Street Hospital, where he is at present.

Sixth Victory Loan Objective Is $1,300,000,000

Finance Minister Ilsley has given Canadians a new high target of $1,300,000,000 for the seventh Victory Loan campaign which, he has announced, will open Oct. 23.

The $1,300,000,000 figure, which he described as "the minimum objective," is $100 million above the objective of the sixth Victory Loan campaign which last May yielded $1,407,547,650.

In his announcement Mr. Ilsley said the borrowing requirements for the current fiscal year still stood at the $3,200,000,000 figure estimated in his Budget speech June 26. Provision has been made in the Budget for uncertainties , and it appeared likely that an increase $500 million might have to be made in estimates of war expenditures.

Individual subscriptions have an objective of $600 million in the October campaign, a $75 million increase over objective in the sixth loan.

STRONGER SHELLS NEEDED

A call has gone to Canadian agricultural scientists to help the poultry industry in obtaining greater strength in the shells of eggs. There are two special reasons for this: the loss to the industry generally through breakage of shells in transport and handling during the past year has been excessive, and Canadian eggs for export in the shell require strong shells. Poultry authorities point out that the loss is not alone in the actual breakage but in the smearing of the unbroken eggs. Shortage of help, inexperienced help, any more volume of business than can be properly serviced are all contributory causes. To prevent the breakage, there are two methods of approach—greater care in handling, and a tighter-texured stronger shell. The latter may be solved by research ork.

Baptist Church Notes

Cautioning against over-optimism and smug complacency, Mr. F. B. Keys, speaking on the subject, "The War is Won" last Sunday said, "there is much fighting and praying yet to do. Nevertheless the victorious culmination of the spiritual struggle that has ensued down the ages of time is assured in the words from the cross. "it is finshed," and from the throne, "it is done", (Rev. 16:17.

Mr. F. B. Keys will be absent from the pulpit this Sunday, taking charge of anniversary services at Monck. Mr. Roy Langford and Mrs. Keys will be in harge of Cedarside Church, Flesherton and at Rock Mills Church.
