STALIN'S SETTLEMENT

Can it be that the agreements reported from Moscow between the White Russian and Ukranian republics on the one side and the Polish Committee of Liberation on the other are linked with the recent declaration of autonomy for the Soviet Republics? There was wide speculation as to what Molotov was driving at when he announced last February that the various republics would henceforth have their own armies and foreign offices. At the time Mr. Molotov said: "This new embodiment of the growing friendship of the people of the Soviet Union will contribute to the further growth of the prestige of our countries with the nations of East and West." That seemed a bit mysterious at the time, but in veiw of recent developments more light is forthcoming.

NAZIS GERMANY'S DOOM IMPENDING

Germany is finding the way of the transgressor hard. After five years of lies, deceit and heartless behavior towards her neighbors she stands practically alone surrounded by powerful armies. Having shown no pity to her millions of human victims she can expect none in return. Brought to bay at least after running amouk she knows her doom is sealed and is quailing before the ordeal she is about to undergo and wondering how she is to continue to live in a world in which she has deliberately chosen to fall from an honored nation to, with the single exception of Japan, the most despised nation on earth.

East and west allied troops stand practically chest to chest against Nazis troops while Allied instruments of death and destruction on land and in the skies pour their devastating loads of explosives on what was once the sacred soil of the Fatherland which Hitler once declared inviolate.

Most of all the Hun fears the wrath of the Russian giant and with good reasons. They have come to collect their bill with interest as Stalin said they would. The world will be shocked by the ferocity of the Russians, but after what they have suffered at the hands of the German monsters who can blame them? The last battle is about to begin.

Mr. Churchill loves his uniform as an Elder Brother of Trinity House, and in a sense he is a sort of Elder Brother to the Anglo-Saxon world these days.
