GARFIELD CASE AND HIS FAMILY

Here in the living room of his home in Owen Sound, Garfield Case, Progressive Conservative in the North Grey by-election, disusses an item of interest in the news with members of his family. On the left is Mrs. Case, busy with her knitting, and Jean, the youngest daughter is beside her. Mrs. Joseph Rowan, mother of Mrs. Case, sits on the arm of the chesterfield beside Mr Case, and daughter Ruth sits on his left. All that is missing from the picture is the eldest daughter, Bernice, who is a stewardess with Trans-Canada Airlines. This picture is typical of the happy home life enjoyed by the Case family.

VICTORIA CORNERS

Our community this week seems to bespeak sorrow and illness among our people.

Our sympathy is extended to our Proton Station merchants, Mr. and Mrs. Dever in the loss of the former's brother, Matt. at the home of their sister, Mrs. T. D. Crawford, Markdale, Saturday morning, January 6, also to Mrs. Abe Sherson, Proton Station, in the loss of her sister, Mrs. Wauchope (the former Bertha Patton), one time resident of this community, and of late a resident of Chatsworth, with her son, Gordon, and family; and to the White family at Proton Station, whose mother, Mrs. Robt. White passed away Friday night.

Mr. Fred Bannon has gone to Toronto where he has secured a position.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Acheson and Ina entertained Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Acheson and family, Saugeen Junction, to a fowl dinner on Sunday in honour of Ina's birthday. Omitted in last week's news was the item regarding Barber Renfred Acheson, Camp Borden, and Mrs. Acheson and four daughters, also Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Gallagher and granddaughter, Miss Evelyn Gallagher, Wareham, visiting on New Year's Sunday with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Acheson and Ina.

Mr. Earl Talbot, Miss Laurene Talbot and Mrs. W. G. Talbot accompanied by Mrs. Clem Livingstone and little son, Billie, motored to Toronto on Monday of last week where Mrs. Talbot entered the General Hospital pending her operation later in the week.

On Thursday morning last the trustees were summoned to attend to several matters pertaining to the school. Mr. Russell Linton was the newly appointed caretaker at an increase in salary.

With the sick we have Mrs. Wm. Talbot a patient in the Toronto General Hospital, where she underwent a critical operation on Saturday afternoon. Mr. Jas. Linton is very poorly with an anaemic condition. We hope Mrs. Talbot may make favorable progress now and that Mr. Linton shall regain good health.

The January meeting of the W.A. Society of Inistioge was held at the home of Mrs. George Moore on Thursday afternoon, January 11 with an attendance of twelve members. Mrs. Walter Nicholls, the newly elected president capably conducted her initial meeting. Some plans were made for a box social and program to be held in the near future. Mrs. Walter Nicholls and Laurene Talbot had an interesting program arranged for the afternoon. Lunch was served at the close with Mrs. Evelyn Ferris and Mrs. Walter Acheson as assistant hostesses.

Mrs. George Moore received word at Christmas from Mrs. Saunders, (the former Mrs. Carl Atkinson) of this community) now of Berkeley regarding the serious illness of their little son, Robert. Later news revealed that the little three year old patient had been removed to the Sick Children's Hospital, Toronto. We trust that more favorable news may soon be received.

Died

Wauchope — At the home of her son, Gordon, in Chatsworth on Monday, Jan. 15th, 1945, Bertha Jane Patton, in her 68th year. Remains resting at Richards Funeral Home, when service will be held in St. John's United Church, Flesherton, on Wednesday, Jan. 17th, at 2 p.m., interment to be made in Flesherton Chapel.

CEYLON

Mr. Jas. Oliver of the O.D.R. district received the sad news last week of the death of his sister, Mrs. Dunn of Algoma. Mrs. Vause of Markdale is also a sister of deceased. The sympathy of this community is extended to the bereaved relatives of Mrs. Dunn, also to the relatives of the late Donald McMillan of Priceville who passed away recently.

Mrs. Tory, Lauriston, spent a couple of days visiting her mother, Mrs. H. Piper, the past week.

Mrs. E. Smillie returned to Tor- Tuesday morning after visiting for some time with friends in Ceylon.

Miss Helen Duckett, Toronto, spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Duckett.

Sorry your correpsondent gave the wrong date for the annual meeting of Ceylon United Church in last week's Advance, it should have read the annual meeting of Ceylon United Church will be held on Sunday, January 21st, after the regular evening service. Kindly keep this date in mind and be present.

Mrs. Earl McLeod and daughter, Marion returned last Friday to Oshawa after visiting at the home of Mr. Peter Muir.

Mrs. McWilliam entertained the ladies of Ceylon to quilting last Friday evening. The quilt when finished goes to the Russian Relief fund.

Anyone having donations for the Russian Relief Box please bring them to the home of Mrs. Melville Hogarth on Fri., February 2 when there will be a display of the articles for the boxes followed by a tea.

Miss Catherine Gillespie, Dundalk, was a week end visitor with Mrs. J. Knox.

Holdfast Farm Women held their regular January meeting at the home of Mrs. Mervin McFadden. Owing to the absence of the Vice-President, Mrs. A. Stewart presided. The main business was the discussion of the boxes to be packed for the Russan Relief Fund. It was decided to pack the boxes at the home of Mrs. Melville Hogarth on Friday, February 2. Any donations will be greatly appreciated as the Russian need is still very great. The topic of the afternoon was an outline of the Home Nursing classes held in Flesherton, ably handled by Mrs. M. McWilliam, Mrs. Sinclair and Mrs. Hogarth.

Mrs. Wickens and Mrs. McFadden gave an instrumental. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J. S. McDermid.

RECEIVE PARTICULARS OF DEATH OVERSEAS OF SON TPR. EVERETTE FISHER

The following letter was received by Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Fisher in regard to their son, who was killed in action in Holland:

My Dear Mrs. Fisher

I received your letter yesterday and may I offer my most humble apologies for not having written you sooner regarding the death of your son, Everette.

I was Ev's platoon commander while he served with our regiment, and I am proud to say he turned out to be one of the best bren-gunners I ever had. He was cool, confindent and fearless.

On the afternoon of October 22nd, just before we put in an attack on Schoondyke in the Scheldt pocket, Everette was killed by a sniper while on fighting patrol. It was a task to run a route into the town. He died instantly, Mrs. Fisher and I am quite sure he never suffered a moment of pain. He was shot through the breast.

I can assure you, that we avenged his death many times that day and since.

I know there is little I can say to ease your sorrow but I would like to say this, Ev made many friends while with us and we are all proud to say he served with our regiment and am sure he shall never be forgotten by us.

The Padre buried your son that afternoon and he will write and tell you of his exact resting place.

I too, join in your prayer that this will bring a lasting pease to this world. I remain.

Your sincerely,
Lieut. D. A. Pearce.
