TANK BECOMES A 'FORT'

From the house in the background of photo above, German snipers were popping off men of the First Army's famed 1st Infantry Division as they fought through St. Andreasburg, Germany. So up rolls a tank, swings broadside across the narrow street, and makes a nice little "fort" behind which our soldiers take cover, while the tank's cannon blasts away at the sniper-infested houses.

THIS WAS A KRUPP PLANT
