THE ASTONISHER

(Official paper of the Pupils of Flesherton High School)
EMMA MEADS, Editor

GRADE IX

Doug. I sit in the front seat and have red hair.

Frances, we can't figure out whether it is Ward or not.

Well at last The exams are over and are we glad?

Wanted — Extra knowledge for French classes after school.

Big Eleanor seems quite worried that Jim hasn't been here lately.

Turney believes in chewing gum to make the teacher cross.

Bob Turney used to come at nine o'clock but now he comes at ten.

The Victory on Tuesday gave us lots of excitement. We need another holiday.

Some people stay home because its sprinkling rain and they have no rubbers. Mustn't be too forgetful M. S.

GRADE X

Second form is anxiously waiting to see how many failed in our Easter reports.

Our class is somewhat smaller now, Ted left on farm service.

Barbara is becoming brighter now, she is getting used to spending more time alone.

Betty says her best subject is Math. or have you changed your mind since then?

Emma is our whirlwind, she is still improving in Latin

David would make an excellent English teacher, if English depended mostly on arguments. He usually finds something to argue about in each English class.

Now since winter has passed, Laurie is usually on time for Latin class.

Bruce doesn't know whether Latin or Mathematics is his best subject.

We wish Marion and Shirley a speedy recovery. Both the girls received their vaccination recently and second form would like to know which is worse the arm or the fuss.

Blanche is still trying to keep up the morale of the class.

Jim has not attended school much lately, you have a good excuse anyway, Jim.

GRADE XI

Joyce is becoming a brilliant student. She answers quite a few questions in English now.

Nancy said she had a good time the other night. I wonder if it was the company or the show which made it good.

Mable is very interested in a certain soldier. Dundalk can be interesting at times. can't it Mabel?

WHAT OF THE FUTURE?

(View of Mr. Oliver's Past Record)

• •

1. Will you trust the man who couldn't find 50% of the cost of secondary education in 1938, to fulfil his pledge of 90% now?

2. Is the man who used Provincial Police to "negotiate" labor disputes, going to promote the welfare of Post-War labor in a shrinking market?

3. Is the Hepburn government that maintained Hydro rates at a record high and failed to provide Hydro for rural areas in anticipation of war-time needs — is this government capable of planning and carrying out the tremendous essential post-war programme?

4. How many County roads did Mr. Oliver provide for the farmers of Grey? Do you want them guaranteeing your markets and prices in the post-war scramble?

6. Did it occur to Hepburn-Oliver to sell the surplus goods of Ontario in Britain? Who closed London House when our markets were already shrunk in half?

7. Is it any wonder Messrs. Hepburn-Oliver can't understand the wisdom of a policy of immigration which brings to this Province a market for our surplus products?

8. How else can we guarantee jobs for our returning Veterans?

9. What has Drew to offer that promises more? What basis is there to expect better of him than Hepburn?

Vote to Re-Elect

Walter E. Harris

LIBERAL, GREY-BRUCE

He advocates and supports in the House of Commons:

SOLDIERS REHABILITATION — Increased Pensions, War Disability Awards and Gratuities. Already these are among the most generous of any country in the world.

FAMILY ALLOWANCES — The biggest step forward in our march to post-war prosperity. Hundreds of thousands of low-income homes with growing children will have extra uoney to spend every month, which will mean greatly increased buying power and the raising of our standard of living.

FLOOR PRICES FOR FARM PRODUCTS—A continued steady income for Canadian farmers by maintaining floor prices for farm products.

RELAXATION OF CONTROLS — A policy to gradually relax and remove controls as fas as goods become reasonably plentiful.

TAX REDUCTION — To stimulate privaet industry and create greater purchasing power for the farming community by reduction of taxes.

THIS AND OTHER FORWARD-LOOKING LEGISLATION WILL HAVE HARRIS' FULL SUPPORT
