Food4Kids has local drop-off point

Food4Kids, a not-for-profit organization providing packages of healthy food for local children aged 5-14 years with limited or no access to proper nutrition on weekends, now has a drop-off spot in Halton Hills.

Packages of healthy and nutritious food are prepared by volunteers every week and delivered to local schools each Friday to ensure children have the necessary nourishment required over the weekend. Each food package contains kid-friendly, healthy, non-perishable foods in addition to fresh fruits and/or vegetables. The food is delivered to the schools on a weekly basis where packages are discreetly placed inside the child's backpack to ensure non-stigmatizing execution of the program.

Food4Kids is a targeted program, specifically intended to assist children who are at risk of food insecurity and who have little or no access to the most basic of needs on weekends. Children are referred directly to the program through their own schools, ensuring the program is aiding those who need it most.

In existence since 2011, Food4Kids extended the program locally to include Halton Hills at the beginning of the 2013 school year. The program currently feeds 35 children in five local schools and anticipates an increase to approximately 50 children by Christmas.

As the first official sponsors of Food4Kids in North Halton, The Krause Family and Friends Team this week announced that Re/Max Real Estate Centre Inc. at 360 Guelph Street will be the official drop off/donation site for the program in Georgetown.

Fruit cups, canned soups, canned chili, boxes of oranges, granola bars and packets of oatmeal are items that are always needed most.

For information about the Food4Kids program or to inquire about sponsorship, please visit www.food4kids.ca or contact Leslie Salisbury, Community Relations Manager, North Halton at 905-877-5056.
