Interesting Meeting Held By Priceville W. I.

The June meeting of Priceville Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. A. O'Dell, Sr., with Mrs. Malcolm McLean, the president, presiding. Twenty ladies were present and the roll call was answered with suggestions for the improvement of the branch meetings. The program was in charge of Mrs. W. R. Meads who gave a very fine paper on, "Being a Citizen", showing the responsibility of parents and teachers as citizens, in the building and shaping of the characters of the children who will be the citizens of tomorrow. An interesting spelling match was conducted with Mrs. J. C. Harrison and Miss Beatrice Watters as captains. A vocal solo by Miss Jean Mather a piano solo by Mrs. J. C. Harrison, and a reading by Mrs. John Ritchie were much enjoyed. Some of the highlights of the W. I. convention held in Toronto recently were ably presented by Mrs. Moody, a District Vice-President.

During the business part of the meeting the secretary, Miss Anna Shortreed, reported that thirty-three subscribers took advantage of the hospital insurance lately adopted by the local organization of the W.I., and sponsored by the Ontario Hospital Association. The president, secretary-treasurer, district-director, and district representative were appointed as delegates to attend the district annual meeting at Walters Falls. The renting of the Institute Hall is to be administered by Mrs. Garry Whyte, the rent to be paid in advance. Mrs. Wm. Aldcorn distributed some sewing to be done for the Red Cross. The July meeting is to take place at the home of Mrs. Jno. Ritchie with Hopeville-Swinton and Flesherton Institutes as guests, a picnic lunch to be served.

Following the closing of the meeting, the hostesses, Mrs O'Dell, Mrs. McKee and Mrs. D. Reilly served lunch.

In Memoriam

MILLS — In loving memory of Lieut. Harold A. Mills, who was killed in France, on June 11th, 1944.

O dear familiar yesterday!
O sad and strange today!
Yet who would call his glad soul back
To rouse the resting clay?
Or who would wish that he might know
Our morrow's pain and strife,
When he who, once, so longed to live
At last has entered life?
—Father, Mother, sister and brothers.

Empire Youth Sunday Observed At Priceville

Empire Youth Sunday was observed in St Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Priceville, on Sunday morning, when Mr. Wm. D. Halliwell, the minister, spoke on the challenge and opportunity of the individual. He expressed himself clearly on matters which must be faced, for, as he said, history indicates to us that no generation apparently learns lessons ,in so far that man and men have been at war from age to age and, not unlike our Lord, we are expected to grow up in a grim and wayward world. Like our Lord, we must face realities as He did.

Let us remember, Mr. Halliwell stated, that refuge and restfulness are not the whole of salvation. To share in the kingdom among men, it also means a going-out to a richer, fuller "life," a broader, deeper usefulness, a larger joy of noble work in our way of living. The battle for right and not might will remain.

In concluding his address, Mr. Halliwell stated that today there is a greater need than ever to lead youth and all nations of men so that present and future generations may be activated by high qualities of both heart and mind, and also having that urgent sense of responsibility as regards universal justice, brotherhood and peace. "May we give inspiration in effect in our living, so to encourage the youth and all others to share at all times and value the things of the spirit more than material gain."

DREW SUES STAR

A writ for damages of $100,000 for libel was issued Tuesday on behalf of Premier George A. Drew against the Toronto Star, Limited, and Joseph E. Atkinson, president.

The writ said that the libel complained of was published in issues of the Toronto Daily Star on the consecutive dates running from May 25 to June 2, with the exception of May 27, a Sunday.

In explaining his reasons for bringing libel action, Premier Drew said in his statement:

"The people of Ontario have given so decisive an answer to the villainous attacks which were made upon me by the Toronto Daily Star that I have no need for further personal vindication. But this goes far beyond a personal issue.

"If public men with families, and particularly with young children of school age, are to be subjected to false accusations of a most despicable character, it will become impossible to persuade men and women of the kind we need in public life to expose their families and their children to the taunt and abuse which grow out of such slanders.

"No matter how false the statements may be, they do leave an impression with many people who find it difficult to believe that a newspaper which boasts of the largest circulation in Canada could be so utterly unprincipled as the Toronto Daily Star and its publisher have proved themselves in this election.

"In the interest of public decency and particularly with the hope that those best qualified may take an active part in public affairs, I have decided that it is my duty to put an end to the outrageous attacks of the kind to which I have been subjected and the libel action which has been commenced today will be pressed to the final judgement for the protection of honest journalism and decency in public life.

Conviction Made In Court On Jehovah Witness Case
