HANLEY — SHAW

A very pretty wedding was solemnized on Saturday, June 9th at 12.00 o'clock noon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bertle Shaw, Clarksburg, when their second daughter, Ruby Iola, was united in marriage to Benjamin Charles, second son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hanley, Eugenia. Reverend J. C. McNichol performed the ceremony.

The bride was lovely in a gown of white sheer in street-length style. She wore a corsage of, pink roses lily of the valley and maiden-hair fern. In her hair she wore a cluster of pink roses and she wore the gift of the groom, a pearl necklace and matching earrings, set in sterling.

The bride entered the living room on the arm of her father. She took her place under an arch of ferns, roses and evergreens. The room was decorated with pink and white streamers, wedding bells and a profusion of beautiful flowers.

Evelyn Shaw, sister of the bride, bridesmaid, was becomingly gowned in pink sheer and wore a corsage of yellow roses, maiden-hair fern and lily of the valley. The groom's gift to the bridesmaid was a pearl necklace and brooch. Assisting the groom was Bryce Hanley. The groom's gift to his brother was a signet ring.

The bride's mother wore turqoise crepe and matching corsage of roses, Also receiving was the groom's mother gowned in printed silk jersey and who also wore roses.

About forty guests sat down to a buffet luncheon. The beautiful three-tiered wedding cake, made by Mrs. Ryerson Sparling, centred the table and on either side were tall pink candles in silver holders. Mrs. Goldsmith and Mrs. Winters poured tea and Mrs. Idle, Mrs. Kennedy and Miss Shaw served.

The young couple left for St. Catherines, Niagara Falls and other points. The bride's travelling costume was a blue wool suit with matching accessories.

The cousin of the bride, Wren Velma Shaw, WRCNS was present from Montreal. Other guests were present from Markdale, Flesherton, Thornbury, Clarksburg, Eugenia, Heathcote, Singhampton and Meaford.

The couple will reside on the groom's farm near Eugenia.

GRAHAM — ELLIS

The bride's home at Kimberley was the scene of the wedding on Saturday, June 9, of Thelma Elfreda. daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Ellis, and John Charles, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Graham of Kimberley. Rev. West was the officiating minister.

Miss Joy Ellis, cousin of the bride, wearing a street length dress of dusty pink sheer with accessories and corsage of roses and stephanotis played "Lohengrins" bridal chorus as the bridal party took their place in the living room before an altar of spring flowers.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of white stiffened chiffon over satin, with long sleeves, sweetheart neckline and fitted bodice with full skirt. Her shoulder length veil of white net was held in place by a bandeau of white rosebuds. She wore white satin sandals and the groom's gift, a strand of pearls. Her shower bouquet was of American Beauty roses. stephanotis and maiden hair fern.

The maid of honor, Miss Kay Miller of Collingwood, wore a turquoise gown of stiffened chiffon over taffeta and made on long lines. She wore a matching Dutch hat and silver sandals and carried an arm bouquet of Talisman roses and Baby's Breath. Cpl. Ted Weber of Kimberley was groomsman.

The bride's mother received her guests in a two piece ensemble of turquoise and back with black accessories. The groom's mother wore a beige two-piece ensemble with brown accessories and both were wearing corsages of rose buds.

A dainty buffet luncheon was served the guests from a table centered with the wedding cake in a setting of tulle and flanked by pink and white carnations in crystal vases.

Following the reception the bride and groom left on a motor trip through Southern Ontario. For travelling the bride wore a dressmaker suit of lime green with brown accessories.

CAMPBELL — CUTTING

The wedding took place at two o'clock, Saturday, June 9th, in Annesley United Church, Markdale, of John Elward Campbell younger son of Mr. and Mrs. John Campbell, Eugenia, and Gladys Marybelle Cutting, youngest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. F. Cutting. Markdale. Rev. W. A. Westcott of Flesherton was the officiating minister.

The bride was attired in a street length dress of white triple sheer with long sleeves and round neckline; her shoulder length veil arranged to fall from a halo of baby white chrysanthemums, and she carried a nosegay of American Beauty roses, white and pink sweet peas with maiden hair fern tied with white satin ribbon. A single strand of pearls, gift of the groom was worn by the bride.

Matron of honor was Mrs. J. M. Smibert, sister of the bride, who wore a two-piece street length dress of crepe in dusty pink with matching hat in corded ribbon and other accessories in brown. The bride's attendant carried a nosegay of Johanna Hill roses, mauve sweet peas and maiden hair fern.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Mr. B. A. Fries of Hamilton. Mr. Arthur Proctor of Eugenia acted as groomsman and Mr. Gordon Wyville of Vandeleur was usher for the wedding. Mrs. W. E. Harris played the wedding music and accompanied Mr. Mel. Buchanan of Flesherton, who sang "Through the Years" while the register was being igned.

Spring flowers and evergreens were used to decorate the church.

The reception was held in the Legion Hall following the wedding where about thirty guests were received by the bride assisted by her aunt, Mrs. Stella Wyvill and the groom's mother, Mrs. John Campbell. Mrs. Wyvill was attired in a two-piece blue figured crepe dress wearing a corsage of pink carnations and sweet peas. Mrs. Campbell wore a two-piece lavender figured crepe dress with a corsage of pink carnations and sweet peas.

Following the reception the young couple left on a motor trip through the Muskoka district. For travelling the bride chose a powder blue flannel dressmaker suit with hat of blue feathers and other accessories in white, and she wore a corsage of sweetheart roses.

Upon their return, Mr. and Mrs. Campbell will be living on the groom's farm at Eugenia. There were relatives present for the wedding from Toronto, Hamilton, and Montreal. Mrs. Wm. Hislop, grandmother of the groom was also a guest at the wedding; she is in her ninetieth year.

White Shoes for Men, Women and Children, at
BATES FOR BOOTS
DUNDALK

VANDELEUR

Under the auspices of the Farm Forum, Mr. I. B. Lucas of Markdale gave an illustrated lecture on dwarf fruit trees, etc. in the Community Hall on Monday evening, May 28th. The lecture, pictures and dihcussions were quite interesting and the speaker was tendered a hearty vote of thanks. Mr. Ed Lang will put on a moving picture program in the Hall on June 19th.

The Misses Cole of Toronto were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lundy Johnston recently.

Mrs. McMullen of Eugenia is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Andy Fawcett and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Graham and Ruth attended the Federation of Agriculture and Farm Forum picnic in Owen Sound on Saturday, June 2.

Mr. and Mrs. McMaster of Brantford and Miss Marybelle Piper of Markdale were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Bowland.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Wyville and daughters and Mrs. Lorne Ormsby attended the wedding in Markdale of Miss Gladys Cutting.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Finn of Collingwood, A. C. Stewart Finn of Ft. Albert were week end visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Howard Graham and Ruth.

Miss Margaret Dawn of Collingwood and Mr. Dawn of Heathcote visited with Mrs. Ethel Hutchinson over the week end.

Mrs. Will Ratcliffe is home after spending several months in Toronto.

Miss Minnie Graham is spending a few weeks at her home in the valley.

Hilliard Fitzsimmons is home after spending some time in the army.

Cream Service

WE ARE ENDEAVORING TO GIVE YOU A CREAM SERVICE WHICH CANNOT BE EXCELLED ANYWHERE
SELL OFF YOUR OLD HENS

We find that we must have more time in handling the cream in order to avoid congestion on open nights, especially Saturday nights. We must stop testing cream at 10 p.m. on open nights in order to be able to pasteurize and cool

We are taking the liberty of asking our patrons who want to deliver their cream on open nights to co-operate with us and rry to deliver their cream earlier, as we must get our testing done before 10 p.m. Your co-operation would be appreciated.

Cream deliveries exceed those of last year, and more and more cream patrons realize they are benefitting from the CENTS EXTRA paid for DELIVERED CREAM.
the cream.

SELL OFF YOUR OLD HENS

Now that egg production is falling off, you will be wise to sell your hens and make room for your new flock. We are paying highest prices for Live and Dressed Poultry.

Flesherton Creamery & Produce
Phone 66 Angus Avis, Manager

Are YOU Eligible for NEW TIRES?

That's the $64 question today, but we will be glad to give you the answer. If you are eligible to buy new tires, we recommend the new Dominion Royal. "There's no finer tire built." But if you are not eligible, let our expert tire men build new life and more mileage into your present tires.

GEORGE SLED
Feversham
Phone Feversham 22 r 13
COMPLETE TIRE SERVICE

"Some day we'll own a General Motors car*"

*CHEVROLET
PONTIAC
OLDSMOBILE
BUICK
CADILLAC

Across Canada, hundreds of thousands of men and women have kept faith with those who fight . . . stuck to the job at hand . . . kept factories operating . . . produced a staggering quantity of vital war equipment.

To reach their work has involved miles of walking, long waits for overcrowded transportation, the discomfort of rain, sharp winds and bitter cold. For many, the result has been a heart-felt determination "to some day own a General Motors car.*"

Some day you will have an opportunity to own a General Motors car. When Victory is final and complete, General Motors will swing from the all-out task of producing military vehicles and weapons of war, to the production of more and better cars for more people—cars that will take you speedily, comfortably, and safely to your post-war jobs—and to your post-war pleasures!

GM-245X

THE GENERAL MOTORS DEALER WILL BE READY TO BRING YOU THE BEST IN TOMORROW'S CAR AND TRUCK VALUES