Phil Karda Ins. joins AOKN

Phil Karda Insurance Agency Ltd., 174 Guelph St. in Georgetown, is participating in the Acts of Kindness Network and will be accepting donations Monday to Friday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. until Friday, Dec. 20.

AOKN serves children, youth, adults, families and seniors touched by mental health and poverty issues in several communities. New this year – AOKN is partnering with Food for Life in Halton to make “Winter Woolies” available to 1,500 adults and 1,000 children in Burlington, Oakville, Milton, Acton and Georgetown.

For info: aokn@cogeco.ca or 905-319-0035.

Scorpio's Peace & Polish holding food drive

Scorpio's Peace & Polish, 134 Guelph St., Unit 3 in Georgetown is holding a food drive for the Georgetown Bread Basket. Drop off non-perishable food items as well as monetary donations between Dec. 1 & 24. A free YIN Class will be held on 7-8:30 p.m. on Dec. 23 with a non-perishable food item.

Winter Coat Drive

Gardiner Public School will be accepting clean and gently used winter coats to give to families in Halton who need them.

This coat drive will be running until Dec. 13.

There are 28,000 people living in Halton who are in financial distress and may need a warm coat during this harsh Canadian winter.

Please help— drop off your winter coats at the school, 14365 Danby Road during school hours, 9 a.m. to 3:45 p.m. Note: we can only accept winter coats at this time.

Georgetown Alliance Church offers Letters of Hope

The Christmas season can be a difficult time for many; our expectations can often exceed our own reality.

Yet, no matter what season we are in, we all go through periods of difficulties and struggles that can seem overwhelming at times.

The Living Hope Centre would love the opportunity to send you a personalized, hand-written love letter to encourage you, inspire you and to offer you hope in a world that is easy to become lost in.

No one is immune to suffering, but with a “Letter of Hope” from a follower of Christ, you will be reminded that you are not alone and are genuinely loved.

If you would like to request a letter for yourself or someone you know, contact Georgetown Alliance Church's The Living Hope Centre at 905-873-0250 ext. 115 for more information.
