St. John's W.M.S.

The regular monthly meeting of the WMS was held Friday, June 15 at the home of Miss MacMillan, with a fair attendance in spite of the rain. Mrs. Sled led in prayer followed by minutes and treasurer's report. There was some business and the Heralds were heard. Miss MacMillan had charge of the devotional part of the meeting, following the program given in the June missionary monthly. Mrs. Blakely read scripture followed with prayer by Miss MacMillan. The theme for the program "The Crusade For Christ and His Kingdom", was presented in readings by Mrs. John Stewart, Mrs. R. J. Wilson, Mrs. Cook, Miss Kate MacMillan, Miss M. MacMillan and Mrs. MacNichol. A hymn was sung and Mrs. Cargoe closed the meeting with prayer.

For Outstanding Bravery

A small boy only four went to Buckingham Palace not long ago to receive the Albert Medal. He was Anthony Everitt, and the medal had been awarded to his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Everitt, who tried to rescue the crew of a crashed and burning American plane, and gave her own life in the attempt. As the King of England handed the medal to Tony, he said, "Now you will keep this in memory of your very brave mother." Anthony Everitt will remember those words. His education is being cared for by a fund created by the United States Army Air Force in memory of Mrs. Everitt.

1899 MONEY ORDER

In August, 1899, the late Alexander Lumsden received an express company money order for $17.60 at his steamship company office on Lake Temiskatming, but it got mislaid among his books. His son, John Lumsden, found the 46-year-old money order cracked and yellowed with age, among his father's estate papers and the express company had accepted and agreed to cash it.

Farmer (to new ploughman) — "Why don't you keep the furrows straight? Didn't I tell you to keep your eyes on an object in the next field and make straight for it?"

Ploughman — "That's what I'm doing, but the cows keep walking about."

In future we intend to manufacture a full line of feeds according to the Co-Op. formula bearing that name. The Concentrates used in the manufacture of these feeds are blended by some of the best men in the feed business.

We are pleased to announce that H. A. McCauley of Flesherton has agreed to mix the Co-Op. feeds for us.

You can rest assured that we will do everything possible on our part to pu up a finished product that is equal to, if not better in every way, than any feeds we have sold in the past.

THE THINGS MONEY CAN'T BUY

The late George Horace Lorimer, for many years editor of the Saturday Evening Post, once wrote these words: "It is a good thing to have money and the things that money can buy, but it is good, oo, o check up once in a while and make sure you haven't lost the things that money can't buy."

The things that money can't buy would make a long list. Here are some of them:

Money can't buy real friendship—friendship must be earned.

Money can't buy a clear conscience—square dealing is the price tag.

Money can't buy the glow of good health—right living is the secret.

Money can't buy happiness—happiness is a mental condition and one may be as happy in a cottage as in a mansion.

Money can't buy nsets, songs of wild birds, and the music of the wind in the trees—these are as free as the air we breathe.

Cheques totalling $8,808,000 were sent out last week by the Drew Government to public and separate school boards throughout the province as advance payment of school grants for 1945 under the educational plan whereby the Government assumes 50% of the overall cost of education. The advance payment represents 34% of the total grants and the balance will be forwarded on or before Sept. 1st.

The new world we all want may be just around the corner, but we'll have go straight to get there.

Money can't buy inward peace—peace is the result of a constructive philosophy of life.

Mon y can't buy good character—good character is achieved through decent habits of private living and wholesome dealings in our open contacts with our fellow men.

Continue the list yourself. You'll agree that among the things money can't buy are some of the most valuable treasures life has to offer.

In recent years, Canadian farmers have overcome a multitude of difficulties. Despite labour shortages, storm and weather hazards, they have consistently increased production, and harvested the record crops so vital to a nation at war.

They have been handicapped, by lack of proper distribution facilities, in getting produce to market, farm-fresh. Many who realize the time and labour a General Motors truck would save, look forward hopefully to the time when they are again available.

That time is coming . . .

The time when Victory signals a General Motors change-over from war to peace production . . . the time when all the experience, engineering skill and productive power now being used by General Motors to fashion tough, durable armoured vehicles, will be directed towards the production of sturdy, General Motors trucks — dependable, great-hearted trucks that will mean less work and worry, more leisure and prosperity for farmers and producers everywhere.
