The Adventures of "Peerless Pete" . . . . by THE BRITISH AMERICAN OIL COMPANY LIMITED

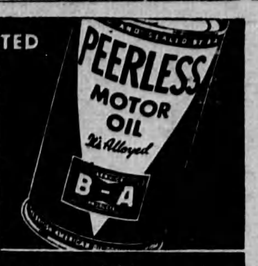
No. 1 He is "selected"

In this series our artist gives his version of how the finest crude oil — symbolized by Pete — is selected and refined to make B-A Peerless, the oil that's "alloyed" to keep repair costs down! Ask for Peerless Motor Oil tomorrow!

Only the very finest specially selected crude oils are used for Peerless Motor Oil.

B-A's control of oil wells with choice of crudes means longer engine life.

Crude is transported in B-A's own tankers. For lower repair costs change to Peerless!



"It's Alloyed!"

The Late Gordon MacDonald

The death occurred after a week's illness of Gordon Donald MacDonald, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Archie MacDonald, Froude, Saskatchewan. Cause of death was cerebral hemorrhage.

He was born at Froude in 1913 and attended public and high school there, obtaining his Grade 12. After graduation he farmed with his father. He was always active in community enterprises, especially Sunday School and Church. He was a member of the Board of Stewards of Froude United Church. Funeral services were held in the United Church at Froude with Rev. A. Stade officiating. Burial was made in Stoughton cemetery.

Besides his parents he is survived by two sisters, Alice of Weyburn, Saskatchewan, and Mary of Lytton, B.C.

The Late James Inkster

The burial of Mr. Jas. Inkster, a resident of Saskatchewan since 1906, who died June 9th in Kindersley hospital, took place in the family plot, Luseland Cemetery, Tuesday, June 12th. Rev. John Brent of Coleville conducted the service, the Rev. R. Currie of Wilkie assisting.

Mr. Inkster was born April 10, 1867 at Feversham and in 1901 married Margaret McCallum. He went to Strongfield, Saskatchewan, in 1906 and later moved to Luseland, where he lived an active and useful life for almost thirty years. He was an elder of the Presbyterian church for many years, always an ardent and devoted worker.

Surviving are his wife and three children, Burton, at home; Jean (Mrs. Wallace), Victoria; Alice (Mrs. S. Patchell,, Broadacres; three grandchildren and one sister, Mrs. S. MacKenzie of Calgary, and one brother, A. R. Inkster, of Coghlan, B.C. There were many beautiful floral tributes.

The late Mr. Inkster was a visitor in the Flesherton and Feversham districts last summer and his many friends are very sorry to hear of his passing.

Wes is the younger son of Mr. and Mrs. George Bellamy of Winnipeg, formerly of Flesherton and this was the first visit to the scenes of his boyhood in almosts 30 years. It was a pleasure to talk to him again as it was 26 years ago since we last saw him in Winnipeg. Come again, Wes.

RECEIVED THEIR DISCHARGES

Mrs. W. G. Tr lford of Toronto, Fred and Bud Breen visited over the week end with Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Richardson. Fred served with the Canadian Army for four years and saw service in Germany and Bud was with the United States Army and was wounded while in hospital in New Guinea, suffering from a bout with malaria. Both boys now have been given their honorable discharges.

United Church Notes

Last Sunday there was a good congregation present, both morning and evening. In the morning Mr. and Mrs. Wallace told the story of The Good Samaritan, and illustrated the parable on a flannelgraph. Mr. and Mrs. Wallace are holding special meetings each evening this week at Proton Station. Last evening the church was filled.

In the evening Mr. J. Wesley Armstrong told of his experiences overseas. His descriptions were very picturesque, and he also told of many interesting and thrilling incidents. It is nice to see the boys returning.

Next Sunday, 11.00 a.m. a memorial service is to be held for the late Lawrence (Laurie) Thompson of the East back line, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thompson, who was killed overseas. It is expected that a large congregation will be present, to express by their presence, their sympathy and sorrow. All are invited to attend.

In Memoriam

RADLEY — In loving remembrance of our mother, Selina Radley, who passed away June 22nd, 1939.

Our thoughts wander as daylight fades
To the land of long ago.
And memory paints the scenes of old,
In the gold of the twilight glow.
We seem to see, in the soft lim light,
A face we loved the best.
We think of her when the sun's last ray
Goes down in the far-off west.

— Sadly missed by daughters, Eva, Almeda and son-in-law, Will Brown.

WATCH REPAIRING

E. I. Holley, formerly of Flesherton, will open a watch and clock repairing shop in Dundalk on Saturday, June 9th. Repairs made on all kinds of watches. Satisfaction guaranteed.
