Mrs. J. McMeekin Passes

Mrs. Sara Jane McMeekin, born in Glenelg Township nearly seventy years and a lifelong resident of Priceville, passed away Saturday afternoon at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Brady Irwin, after an illness which confined her to bed for the past three months.

The deceased was married to John McMeekin some forty years ago and following this marriage first lived on a farm on the South Line for about three years, later moving to a farm on the Gravel Road where they lived for about twelve years after which she and her husband came to live in Priceville. Her husband, who was employed by the C.N.R., predeceased her by some fifteen years.

Abotu four years ago the late Mrs. McMeekin suffered a broken leg and did not enjoy good health ever since that injury although she was able to be up and about.

Born the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Martin Stonehouse the late Mrs. McMeekin was the last surviving member of her immediate family, four brothers and four sisters having all predeceased. She is now survived by one son, John McMeekin, of Mount Forest; and one daughter, Olive (Mrs. Brady Irwin), at whose home about three miles north of Priceville she was at the time of her death. She is also suvived by a niece, Mrs. Bert Irwin, formerly Miss Delia McPhail, who was brought up by the deceased as a child.

The late Mrs. McMeekin was an active member of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Priceville, and most highly esteemed by a large circle of friends who will regret her passing.

Mrs. W. Simmons Passes

After a lengthy and trying illness, borne cheerfully with great patience and fortitude, there passed away on Friday, June 22nd, 1945, to her great reward the last remaining pioneer of the Fourth Line of Artemesia, Mrs. Sarah Simmons in her 82nd year.

The late Mrs. Simmons was born in Laskey, King Township, July 15th, 1863, coming with her parents to this district at the age of two years She was the last remaining member of the family of fourteen of the late William and Isabella Blackburn. She was married on December 19th, 1883 to the late Walter Simmons, who predeceased her by 20 years. Since that time she has resided with her daughter, Mrs. Wesley Plantt, on the Fourth Line.

She leaves to mourn her loss, three daughters, Ida, (Mrs. John McKee) Fourth Line, Maggie (Mrs. Robert Fisher), Flesherton, and Flossie (Mrs. Wesley Plantt), Fourth Line, also six grand children and four great grand children.

In religion Mrs. Simmons was a Presbyterian, being a member of the former Chalmer's Church, Flesherton. Since Union she has faithfully attended the Baptist Church in Flesherton and Rock Mills until ill health prevented her going.

During a short service at her late home, conducted by her pastor, Mr. F. B. Keys, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Chard rendered a duet, "I'll Go Where You Want Me To Go." This service was closed by a nephew, Mr. John Blackburn of Orillia. The remains were then taken to the Flesherton Baptist Church where Mr. F. B. Keys and Mrs. Keys sang a duet "I Want To See Jesus, Don't You". Mr. Keys conducted the service and based his sermon on the 23rd Psalm and St. John the 10th Chapter, setting her life as an example. All hymns sung were favorites of the deceased. Interment was made in the family plot in Flesherton Cemetery. The pallbearers were, Messrs. Arthur Chard, Charles Stafford, Joseph Shier, John Badgerow, Cecil Meldrum and Harry Fisher.

The many floral tributes received, showed the high esteem in which she was held, were carried by, Ruth and June McKee, Doreen and Thelma Fisher, Lewis and Mary Fisher, Isabelle and Earle Croft, Janet Lougheed, Inez Badgerow, Ruth Phillips, Chester Shier and Roy Lyons.

Many friends attended from St. Catherines, Hamilton, Toronto, Thornhill, Laskey, Mount Forest, Walkerton, Durham, Orillia, Stayner, Creemore, Nottawa, Collingwood, Meaford, Singhampton, and Feversham.

Thy will be done
From day to day
Upward with Patience until
The setting sun
With Life's race run.
Welcome rest, her Father's will.

Baptist Church Notes

Services in the Baptist Churches will be at the regular hours this Sunday.

Commencing this week the lesson period will be prefaced by a flannelgraph picture of the character and events covered in the Scripture portion studied in the classes.

The Rock Mills and Cedarside Sunday Schools will hold their picnic at Akitt's bush. A sports program with a wide variety of prizes is scheduled for the afternoon and a ball game will follow the supper hour.

In Memoriam

MOFFAT — In loving memory of my dear mother, Mrs. Margaret Moffat, who passed away June 30, 1941.

—Ever remembered by daughter, Mina.

In Memoriam

McKINNON — In loving memory of Mrs. Isabella McKinnon, who died June 27, 1939.

Time may heal the broken-hearted
Years may make the wound less sore,
But it cannot fill the longing
For the loved one gone before.
Who shall say the grief is lessened
Though the smile may hide the tears,
Memories keep the wound still open
Despite the passing of the years.

— Gordon, Phyllis and Tena.
