ROCK MILLS

Some of the farmers have started haying and the crop is fair this year, but the showery weather is making it difficult to get the hay dry.

There are some fine fields of wheat in this district and I think Mr. Wes Smith has one which is hard to beat as he has wheat that measures six feet in height at the present ime.

Rock Mills have organized a soft ball team and have played a few games this season. They have a real snappy team which will be hard to beat.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Russell Phillips who were married on Saturday, July 7th. They will reside here upon their return from their honeymoon. We welcome Mrs. Phillips to the community.

The Sunday School picnic which was held on Tuesday of last week in Mr. Akitt's bush was a decided success. A large crowd was present and over 150 sat down to supper. The ball game in the evening was the main attraction between Flesherton and Rock Mills. The score was 8-5 in favor of Rock Mills.

Mrs. Clifford McMaster and two children of Flesherton spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Partridge.

Miss Eunice Dobson of Grand Valley was a recent visitor at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Mills and friends of Dundalk were callers on Sunday evening at Chas. Newell's

Congratulations to our teacher, Mrs. F. J. Seeley and pupils on the fine success they made on their exams. They will now enjoy a well earned holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Best visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Russell.

The plot holders of Salem Cemetery held a bee on Wednesday of last week and cleaned the cemetery up nicely and on Thursday, Mr. Tomilson painted the gates and fence at the entrance as his ontribution toward the upkeep of the cemetery which added greatly to the appearance. We extend our thanks and appreciation to Mr. Tomilson for his fine spirit of co-operation.

Anniversary Services Of St. Andrew's, Priceville

(By Priceville Reporter)

The anniversary Sunday, July 1st, in St. Andrew's church was a decided success. Good crowds attended at both services and the choir was assisted by Messrs. Bill McKechnie and Innis McLean of Toronto, and Misses Joan and Jean Galloway and their mother, of Barrie. The two girls sang a duet at each service and the choir rendered special anthems. Then on Monday night a very large crowd attended the garden party. A bountiful supper was provided by the ladies in the basement of the church. The play from Williamsford entitled "Whittlin'" in the hall, was well received. The Priceville orchestra gave several selections and received hearty applause.

Mr. Wm. Sayers gave two humorous recitations. Joan and Jean Galloway also sang a lovely duet and Rev. Brown of Dundalk gave a short speech. The hall was packed to the doors. The National Anthem closed a very enjoyable evening.

Mr. Wm. D. Halliwell, the minister, preached at both the Sunday services and gave two splendid sermons.
