Mrs. D. G. McLean

A host of friends mourn the loss of a highly esteemed mother and friend, in the person of Mrs. D. G. McLean, daughter of Godfrey McTaggart and Mary McDonald, who was born on the North Line, three miles from Priceville. Mrs. McLean spent the winter with her family in Toronto and came up to her home here in April. She hadn't been enjoying very good health for the last few months. She was tenderly cared for by her daughters and the last week, her granddaughter, Leone MacDonald R.N., now Mrs. Dawson, of Toronto, waited on her and everything possible was done for her, but Saturday morning she passed away in her 83rd year.

She married D. G. McLean and kept a General Store. She lived over 60 years in Priceville, her home, outstanding in its hospitality was the scene of many happy gatherings, a sure welcome extended to all. Mrs. McLean was of a happy and cheerful disposition and was loved by all who knew her.

She had a nature you couldn't help loving,
And a heart that was purer than gold,
And to those who knew her and loved her,
Her memory will never grow cold.

The funeral was held Monday afternoon in St. Columba United with friends and neighbors, who came to pay their last tribute of respect to one who was so well known and highly respected by all. Mrs. McLean was a valued member of St. Columba Church and was always there when health permitted. Rev. Mr. Fraser of Walter's Falls had charge of the service and preached a comforting sermon. He was assisted by Mr. Halliwell, minister of St. Andrew's Church here. The choir rendered a lovely anthem "Someday We'll Understand". The hymns used were "Rock of Ages" and "Safe in the Arms of Jesus".

The pall bearers were Angus MacVicar, Tom Harrison, Robt. Parslow, Frank Reilly, Ernest Halliday, Stewart Muir and Angus MacArthur.

She leaves to mourn her loss, two daughters, Olive (Mrs. Harry Richardson) and Mayme (Mrs. A. B. MacDonald) of Toronto; and five sons, Hermie, Priceville; Roy and Allan of Toronto; Donald of Winnipeg; John of Fort Saskatchewan; and Bob was killed in the First Great War.

The casket was surrounded by many beautiful floral tributes, which bore silent messages of love.

Friends attending the funeral from a distance were, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mason, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Chambers and family, Mr. Cameron McLean and sisters, Irma McLean and Mrs. McKay, Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Shantz, Mrs. Caldwell Dawson, Mr. Harry Richardson and family, Mr. Frank Reilly, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy MacDonald, Mrs. John McNeil, Mr. Gorrie McTaggart, all of Toronto; Misses Addie and Marie Jelly of Shelburne; Postmaster and Mrs. Neil MacCannell of Proton Station; Mrs. John Clark and son, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Halliday of Mount Forest; Mr. and Mrs. J. McKechnie. John Mary and Hilda of Durham; Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Bowes, Markdale; Mrs. Quillian, Sarnia; Mrs. Earl McLeod Oshawa; Miss Kate MacMillan, Flesherton; Mrs. W. J. Hay, Mrs. Art Richardson and Jack, Swinton Park.

Interment was made in McNeill's Cemetery. Sympathy is extended to the family, friends and relatives in their sorrow.

A clever mind sees the problem. An understanding heart supplies the answer.

Notice To Parents

Complaints have been made to me of young people raiding gardens in the village and stealing corn and other produce. Parents are urged to warn their children of the consequences of their acts, so that the offences will not be repeated.
