WM. G. ACHESON

Inistioge Community was saddened by the loss of one of their most respected members when they heard that Mr. Wm. G. Acheson had passed away on Friday afternoon, Sept. 21. The late Mr. Acheson had been ailing for about three years, having suffered severe strokes but bore his illness with patience and cheerfulness.

Mr. Acheson was born on the farm now occupied by Harold Acheson and when a small child moved with his parents, the late John and Margaret Acheson, to the farm on which he died. June 27, 1900, he married Emma Reddick and for two years they lived on a farm on the back line owned now by Stanley Acheson, after which they settled on their farm at Inistioge, about half a mile from Victoria Corners, where they resided till about seven years ago, when on the death of his father they purchased the homestead on the back line where they have since made their home.

Mr. Acheson was a man of sterling qualities. He was always interested in the welfare of the community and was always a kind and good neighbor ever willing to help when needed. He was a consistent member of Inistioge United Church. He had held all the offices of the church and had been an elder for many years. Until ill health overtok him, he rarely missed a service and he tried to further the cause of the church in every way. He was ever devoted to his home and family.

On June 27th of this year, Mr. and Mrs. Acheson celebrated their 45th Wedding Anniversary and on Sept. 1t5h Mr. Acheson celebrated his 68th birthday.

He leaves to mourn the loss of a loving husband and father, his wife and five children viz. L.Cpl. Renfred Acheson of Camp Borden; Mrs. Russell Patterson, Mrs. Earl Walton; Mrs. Gordon Acheson of Dundalk district and Ina at home. There are also sixteen grandchildren. He is also survived by two brothers and three sisters, Jas. Acheson, Walter Acheson, Mrs. Wilred Gallagher, Mrs. Jas. Batchelor, all of Inistioge district and Mrs. Archie McTaggart, Brampton; one sister, Mrs. David Wiltshire predeceased him.

The funeral service was held at his late home on Monday, Sept. 24, with interment at Dundalk Cemetery. The service was conducted by Dr. Thompson of Flesherton, pastor of Inistioge United Church assisted by Rev. Mr. Hobbs of Proton Station. Mrs. Abe Sherson and Miss Ruth Sherson sang a duet "Near To The Heart of Jesus". A large number of sympathizing neighbors and friends gathered to express their respect and the many floral tributes bore silent witness to the esteem in which he was held.

The pallbearers were cousins of the deceased, Milton Hutchinson, Christie Johnson, Ernest Acheson, John A. McMillen, Gordon Duncan, and Stanley Acheson.

MRS. DONALD BROWN

Mrs. Margaret Jane Brown for over three quarters of century a respected resident of Banks and the Collingwood District passed away after a lengthy illness at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Robinson, Feversham, on Wednesday, Sept. 19.

The late Mrs. Brown was the youngest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hurst and was born at Banks in the year 1867, where she resided for many years. For the last few years she has resided between the homes of her daughters, Margaret (Mrs. Robinson and Jane (Mrs. Miller). There is also one brother, Mr. Thomas Hurst of Beeton and three grandchildren. The funeral service was held on Friday, Sept. 21 from the home of Mrs. Robinson, the service being conducted by Rev. Shein, a former pastor of Feversham Presbyterian Church, assisted by Rev. Lee of the Gospel Worker's Church. Interment was made in Thornbury Union Cemetery. The very many floral tributes from neighbors and friends and kind expressions of sympathy showed the high esteem in which Mrs. Brown was held.

The pallbearers were six nephews of the deceased, Hughie and Donald Hurst of Collingwood, James Gillies of Nottawa, John Johnston of Thornbury, Jesse Gould, Clarksburg and George Gould, Ravenna.

Mr. And Mrs. Thos. Tucker 50 Years Married

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Tucker were At Home to their friends and relatives on Monday at their home on Lambton Street, on the occasion of their Golden Wedding Anniversary.

Mrs. Tucker received in a very becoming two-piece dress of orchid crepe with gold thread trimming and her bridesmaid of fifty years ago, Mrs. J. Burgess received with her wearing a hyacinth blue printed ensemble with black hat and accessories.

Mrs. William Keller received at the door and the two daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Tucker, Mrs. R. Beyrer of Detroit and Mrs. Joseph Dixon of Egremont assisted in receiving the many friends who called. Four granddaughters, Annie and Mable Dixon, Betty and Joyce Tucker served during the afternoon and also at the family dinner.

The immediate family of two sons and two daughters with their families Rev. and Mrs. A. W. March, Mrs. J. Burgess, who was the bridesmaid fifty years ago, and Dr. and Mrs. Robert Tucker of Paisley were guests at the delicious dinner, served by the granddaughters. Large bouquets of gladioli, asters, zinnias and larkspur were used as decorations throughout the home making a pretty setting for the happy occasion.

The beautiful three-storey cake, made and decorated by Mrs. Tucker, decked the gold lace-covered table and table napkins monogrammed "Annie and Thomas 1895-1945" in gold were used. Rev. A. W. March proposed the toast to the bride and groom and Dr. Tucker, Mrs. Burgess and others were well-wishers. Mr. Tucker, on behalf of his wife, responded very appropriately and told of their happy and blessed wedded life.

Over one hundred friends and neighbors gathered during the afternoon and evening to congratulate this esteemed couple and to wish them well. Many beautiful gifts were received among which were a radio from the family, Mrs. Joseph Dixon (Gladys) of Egremont; Henry of Ceylon; Mrs. Robt. Beyrer of Detroit and Charlie of Priceville, a gold electric lamp from the eight grandchildren, Annie and Mabel Dixon, Betty, Joyce, Hazel, Gerald and Thelma Tucker and Robert Tucker Beyrer. Cards were received from Scotland, Toronto, Los Angeles, Detroit, Whitby, London, Dundalk and Pickering.

A dance was held in the evening, Mr. and Mrs. William Thompson supplying the music and Mr. Campbell Watson calling the square dances. Mrs. Tucker was attractively gowned in orchid with gold trim. — Durham Chronicle.

VICTORIA CORNERS

Our profound sympathy is extended to Mrs. W. G. Acheson and family in the loss of a loving husband and father, in the passing of Mr. W. G. Acheson at his late home on Friday, Sept. 21st. A detailed account of the death will be found in this issue.

Miss Lulu Cole, Toronto, visited a few days with her sister, Mrs. Walter Acheson, and niece, Mrs. Geo. Moore, and attended the funeral of the late W. G. Acheson.

Lance-Sergt. Harold Jackson has returned to his home, following an operation in Christie Street Military Hospital, Toronto. We are glad to see Harold around again.

L.Cpl. Renfred Acheson, RCASC, Camp Borden, has purchased the farm of Wm. Morton, Wareham. His wife and four daughters are residing at their newly-acquired farm, pending Ren's discharge from the service.

Friends might also be interested to learn that Mrs. Sam Saunders (the former Mrs. Carl Atkinson), Berkeley, has disposed of her store and dwelling to Mr. and Mrs. Fox, Chatsworth, who get possession, October 15. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Acheson, Mrs. George Moore and little son, Garry, spent a day recently with Mr. and Mrs. Sam Saunders and family.

Mr. Wm. Talbot accompanied his daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Clem Livingstone, Corbetton, to visit his son, Dave and family at Hamilton.

Anniversary Services have been observed in the local churches the past few Sundays, with several from our community attending. Next Sunday, October 7, marks the occasion of our church,, Inistioge United Church Anniversary services, afternoon and evening in keeping with Thanksgiving.

Another of our local boys has returned from overseas in the person of L.A.C. Arthur McCannell. Art was feted at a reception in Proton Hall on Friday evening, when he was made the recipient of a cash gift.

Mrs. Jos. Copeland is professionally assisting in the home of her brother, Gordon Duncan, Bethel, where a baby girl arrived on Friday morning, September 28.

"Your Satisfaction is Our Success"

It's the man who looks ahead who gets ahead.

GOOD management . . . essential to successful farming, as to any business enterprise . . . is largely a matter of timely marketing and careful spending . . . waiting for the time when it is most favourable to buy.

We all want things now . . . things we have not been able to get for the past several years. Some of these things are necessities . . . some are things that will contribute to our comforts and pleasures.

Eventually, these things will be more plentiful. By waiting a little longer we will help to keep prices of things we need at lower levels and we will buy at better advantage when we do buy.

Meantime we can invest our savings in the safest securities obtainable . . . Victory Bonds. More Victory Bonds will be offered this Fall. They pay 3% interest . . . double bank interest . . . and they are "liquid capital".

If we need cash in an emergency any bank will buy Victory Bonds at any time. And any bank will loan money on Victory Bonds.

The Ninth Victory Loan will be our last opportunity to buy Victory Bonds for a whole year, so buy double this time—the same rate of savings as in previous loans will pay for twice as many bonds over the 12 month period.

FARMERS CAN BUY VICTORY BONDS ON CONVENIENT DEFERRED PAYMENTS THROUGH ANY BANK

. . . just sign a short form letter which Victory Loan Salesmen carry (banks have copies) ordering the bank to buy Victory Bonds for you. Pay 5% when ordering and the balance at any time during the next 12 months. The interest the bonds earn pays the interest on the bank loan.
