Children's Chorus to perform two shows Sunday

Debbie BeChamp warms up to Christmas at Century Church

A regular performer on The Tommy Hunter Show and with Gordie Tapp, Debbie BeChamp has always had a large Christmas repertoire from which she will be making selections to perform at the Century Church Theatre in Hillsburgh, December 7.

Joining Debbie, singing and playing acoustic guitar, will be her eldest daughter Faye, once a member of the Achill Choir, and now quite consumed teaching in elementary school. Faye will supply harmony and a little tambourine. Debbie's husband Peter, aside from preparing rhythm section tracks will also be playing base and lead guitar. Daughter Ruby, (search 'thesmokingzebras' on the Internet) though from an entirely different generation, inherited more than her share of musical skill and will perform her take of some Christmas favorites. "It's not a family band," says Debbie, "But there's a lot of family in the band."

To make the evening even more special, friend and special guest Aaron Solomon, famous for personifying Johnny Cash and Glen Campbell, will perform a number of Christmas selections as a special guest vocalist. Aaron hails from Cape Breton, where he developed a superb mastery of the fiddle, which he will use to provide a down-home flavor to the Christmas tunes.

It should be a memorable night and a great way to bring in the Christmas season. There is one performance only, December 7 at 8 p.m. Tickets are $25 from the Box Office, 519-855-4586.
