CAR LEFT ROAD

(By Rock Mills Reporter)

Bob Croft had an experience one day last week that he won't want to repeat for awhile at least; while speeding on the highway be lost control of the car and it took to the ditch and ran into a wire fence in front of Mr. Harry Genoe's place, breaking off several posts and came to rest on top of the fence. The body of the car was so badly damaged it was beyond repair. Provincial Constable Harold Black investigated and laid a charge of reckless driving. The trial was held this Thursdy at Hanover. The expenses of fixing the car and paying for the damaged fence, etc. will amount to considerable over one hundred dollars. The car was towed to McTavish's Garage, where another body has been put on and other repairing done.

We Will Remember

They went with songs to the battle, they were young,
Straight of limb, steadv and aglow.
They were staunch to the end against odds uncounted,
They fell with their faces to the foe.

They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old,
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun and in the morning
We will remember them.

Remembrance Day, November 11, was observed in Flesherton, Sunday afternoon, when the Town Hall was well filled by citizens paying their respect to the memories of those of our boys who made the supreme sacrifice in World War 1 and World War 11. Addresses were made by Rev. A. W. Holmes of Maxwell and Rev. Dr. Andrew Thompson of Flesherton. Comrade H. W. Kernahan read the names of those who had passed in the service of their country. "O God Our Help in Ages Past" was reverently sung by the gathering, with Miss Evelyn McTavish presiding at the piano. During the service Staff Sergt. B. Phillips and Pte. Jack McDonald stood on guard with arms reversed.

Previous to the main service in the town hall, the members of Flesherton Post of the Canadian Legion and the local platoon of "B" Coy. G. & S. Foresters (Reserve) formed up on Durham street and led by Lieut. Fred Gorrell, marched along several streets in town and congregated at Memorial Park at 2 p.m., where Mrs. John Stewart, whose son, Lieut. Jackson Stewart, was killed in action, placed a wreath on behalf of the mothers of Ontario and Comrade S. J. Stauffer also placed a wreath on behalf of the Legion. Jack Perkins sounded the "Last Post" and "Reveille", followed by two minute silence and prayer by Rev. Holmes. A guard of honor was composed of Staff Sergt. B. Phillips and Ptes. J. McDonald, D. McLeod and W. Shaw. The parade then reformed and marched to the town hall led by the 5-piece pipe band.

Scott Fulton at 3 o'clock.

The attractive bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a period gown of white fashioned with a fitted brocaded bodice with drooped shoulder effect and full net skirt. Her floor-length veil of bridal illusion fell from a white sequin calot and she wore long gloves, carrying the gloves worn by her great-grandmother on her wedding day, November 1, 1847. Her only adornment was a cameo broach, the gift of the groom, and her flowers were a cascade bouquet of white roses. Her attendants were Mrs. Jack Secord of London and Mrs. S. Glenn Coulter of Toronto, Mrs. Secord was in a floor-length of pink net with which she wore a gold sequin calot and shoulder veil, and Mrs. Couter was in blue sheer and she wore a silver sequin calot and matching veil. Miss Mabel Robinson presided at the organ and during the service Mrs. Arnott sang "Because" and "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden."

The reception following the ceremony was at the home of the bride's parents and shortly after arriving from the church the young couple received a phone call from England from two friends, Lt. Douglas Rose and Sergeant Jack Secord, congratulating them on the happy occasion. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Sloan chose an ice-blue chiffon frock with navy picture hat and veil dotted with blue to match her gown and corsage of pink roses. Mrs. Emans wore a flowered silk jersey frock with a small black velvet veiled hat and corsage of pink roses. Later Mr. Emans and his bride left for a wedding trip in the east and before returning will spend a few days in Northern Ontario. For travelling Mrs. Emans donned a smart two-piece black and American beauty velvet dress with black top coat and accessories. They will take up residence in Chatham upon their return.
