Not As A Hole

At a meeting of rural district council a deputation of farmers asked to be received. They wished to complain about the state of the main road just outside the village.

They found, however, that their arguments did not receive a very good reception. In fact, the members of the council objected with emphasis and much noise.

"Look here," said the chairman, "the road is fairly good as a whole."

"Yes," replied the spokesman of the party, "but we want to use it as a road."
