SEASON'S GREETINGS

It may be hard to find the sparkle of tinsel, the shine of candles, in hearts torn with sorrow, in changing times. —
But faith still looms as high and as confident as the evergreen trees. —
Hope burns as brightly as the Yule log.
And love sends forth it's guiding light as brilliantly as the Christmas Star.
While these three endure,
Christmas too will live,
The spirit of peace and good-will somehow prevail.

At this Christmas time, and as 1945 comes to its close, we wish to thank all our customers for their patronage during the past year we trust that we may be of greater assistance to each other in 1946

Once more the Christmas season comes
And happy hearts recall
The glory of that day He sent
His Son to bless us all;
And as the carols sing His praise
O'er all the world once more,
May joy be yours—and fill each day
The New Year holds in store!

CEYLON

To the Editor of the Advance, Mrs. Thurston and also the readers of the cheery weekly paper:

We wish the Season's Best,
Time changes all things,
But Christmas time still
Comes with its blessings
Of peace and good-will,
Comes with its hopes
And its radiant cheer;
May Christmas-time blessings
Be yours all the year.

Happy birthday to Mr. S. Hemphill who celebrated his 79th birthday on Tuesday, Dec. 18th. It is 55 years last April since Mr. Hemphill came to Ceylon, where he has been the blacksmith and implement agent. We hope that Mr. Hemphill will have many more birthday celebrations.
