

A Montgomery Christmas

The annual Montgomery Christmas, celebrating the life of Anne of Green Gables author Lucy Maud Montgomery and her time spent in Norval, was held Saturday in the village.

Left: Andrew Hyde, Youth & Young Family Minister for Norval United Church, waves at traffic wearing a likeness of Lucy Maud Montgomery constructed by many of the youth volunteers at the church.

Top right: Brianna Simpson checks on six-week-old daughter Peri during their visit to St Paul's Anglican Church.

Below right: Joanna Phillips fell in love with the Frosty The Snowman tree she found at St Paul's Anglican Church's annual Christmas bazaar.
