In Memoriam

LEGARD — Treasured memories of a dear mother, Christena LeGard, who passed away January 12, 1923.

Though years pass by, time cannot erase
The memories we all share,
Of the joy we had ere you took your place
Safe in the Master's care.
We recall the life in our humble home
With the hearteaches and joys we knew,
Though it's many long years since you left us alone,
We are thinking each day of you.

— Ever remembered by Meda and Allan.

In Memoriam

GENOE — In loving memory of Mrs. David Genoe, who passed away January 12, 1944.

Nothing can ever take away
The love a heart holds dear,
Fond memories linger every day,
Remembrance keeps him near.

— Husband and Daughter, Dorothy.

PRICEVILLE

A welcome home reception was held Friday night, Dec. 28, in St. Columba United Church, when friends and neighbors came to pay honor to three more of our soldier boys, who have recently returned from overseas. Mr. Mould, student minister, was chairman. The guests and guards in command of Postmaster, R. H. McConkey, marched into the school room of the church, led by Piper Grant Muir. Mr. Cooper of Durham sounded the last post. All joined in singing, "O God Our Help in Ages Past" and "O Canada". Several musical numbers were given by Mr. Johnnie McKechnie with violin and his sister, Mary, accompanied him at the piano. A duet was sung by Miss Jean Mather and Grant Sayers, "Flow Gently Sweet Afton". A solo was also sung by Mr. Mould. Mr. Halliwell gave a splendid address. Mrs. H. B. McLean read a poem composed by a former pastor. Rev. A . D. Penman after V-E Day was announced, in honor of our Priceville boys. The honored guests were: John Woollard, Walter Aldcorn and Bob O'Dell. They were presented with a purse of money by Ken Meads, Bob McIntyre and John Burnett. Walter Aldcorn on behalf of the boys fittingly replied and voiced his appreciation of thanks for the gifts.
