Kimberley Won Hockey Game From Flesherton

(By Kimberley Reporter)

Thursday night Flesherton and Kimberley played the second game of their series, resulting in a 7-8 win for Kimberley, in a fast, hard fought game. Laverne Morwood, playing his first game in several years, in the Kimberley nets turned in a superb performance while Bruce Hodgninson played a brilliant game on defence. All seven goals for Kimberley were scored by their first line, Gord Chard getting four, Bill Lawrence, two, and Ken Chard, one. Although the second line of Harold Graham, Don Graham and Garry Ellis failed to score, they turned in a fine game, particularly in view of the fact that the two Graham boys were playing their first game of the season without previous practice.

For Flesherton, Roy Best, Teeter, and goalie, Eddie Ferris were the outstanding players. Teeter scored two goals and Best, one. Referee, Harold Best handed out two penalties, one to each team.

The next game will be in Flesherton on Friday, March 1st. Since Kimberley have no ice surface, all games are being played in Flesherton.

Kimberley: Goal, Morwood; Defnce, R. Chard, Hodgkinson; Forwards, G. Chard, Lawrence, K. Chard; Alternates, H. Graham, D. Graham, Ellis.

Flesherton: Goal, Ferris; Defence, Bannon, S. Teeter; Forwards, R. Best, B. Teeter, Henry; Alternates, Russell, W. Best.

He has not been enjoying good health for the past several months, as he spent the month of December in hospital with pneumonia. Family Allowance Picture

Canada's Family Allowances have been in operation now for just over a year, and statistics covering the full picture are being released by the Department of Health and Welfare.

Some 1,363,000 families have received allowances to date. The Minister reveals that while the largest single payment actually made to any one family has been $65 a month the average paid per family has been $14.27.

Two-thirds of Canada's families receiving the allowance average between two and three children each. There are only 3,644 families in Canada having two or more children. This represents only one-third of one percent of the families in Canada receiving Family Allowances.

Families containing between five and nine children under sixteen total 122,300, and are 11 percent of Canada's families. Those having four children or less total over 88 percent of the families receiving the allowances.

Families with income below $3,000 annually derive some revenue from the allowance, though income tax exemptions are lowered by the amount received in allowances.

The general picture of Family Allowances in Canada is that the payment of this money each month is achieving the desired result in terms of better nutrition, better housing, better education, and better opportunities for the children of Canada.

United Church Notes

The mid-week meeting for Bible study and for prayer will be held this week at the home of Miss Mary McMillan. The selection for study is the 12th chapter of Revelations.

Classes are being arranged for young people for the study of the Christian life, the place and service of the church. It is to be hoped that parents will encourage their children to attend. There never was a time when it was more important for young people to understand the meaning of life and how it can be best lived.

It is not so important which men conrol industry, as which ideas control the men.

Chinese Supper Enjoyed By St. John's W. M. S.

The regular monthly meeting of the W.M.S. of St. John's United Church took the form of a supper meeting at which Chinese food was served on Tuedsay, Feb. 19th. There were 29 ladies who sat down to prettily laid tables with the guest speaker of the evening, Mrs. Thomson, at the centre head table, flanked by the president, Miss Kate MacMillan, and past president, Mrs. W. I. Henry. The food, interesting and tasty, was enjoyed by all, and a very enjoyable time was spent over the meal. At the close, Mrs. Thomson graciously addressed the meeting, giving a vivid description of the countryside in Honan, where she and Dr. Thomson have spent years in mission work. She also told of the customs and gods of early China, and how the people have responded to mission teaching and became modernized. Some very interesting pictures were shown. Mrs. Moore moved a hearty vote of thanks to Mrs. Thomson for her fine address and also for her efforts in making such a fine supper possible, to which all reponded in the usual manner.

It was decided that the C.G.I.T. affiliation service be held on Tues., March 5th. Plans were also made for the World Day of Prayer, to be joined by "Cedarside" Church on Friday, March 8th.

The March meeting will be held on Sunday, March 17th, when moving pictures will be shown.

The meeting closed with a hymn and the benediction by Miss Kate Macmillan.

No Student Farm Help

There will be no student mass emigration of students from classrooms to help out on the farms in the spring, according to a new ruling from the Department of Education.

School Boards are in receipt of a memorandum from the department, which states that the special regulations "have been discontinued," so that the student body will receive no leave of absence for farm employment this year. It will be the first since early in the war that many of the students have not left their books early to take to the fields. The special leave permitted them to leave school as early as April, providing their school work was up to the mark.

In the memorandum from the Department of Education, the statement was made that the students of the province who assisted on farms had made a noteworthy contribution to the national economy.

Hog Carcass Demonstration Held At Feversham

A hog carcass demonstration was held in Feversham last week, the hogs selected having been shipped from the district in which the demonstration was held. Hence farmers attending see their own hog sold the previous week, dressed and ready for sale, returned from Toronto on the day of the demonstration. The discussion was conducted by H. D. Scotchmer, B.S.A., of the production service of the Dominion Department of Agriculture, who was brought up on a farm and spent five years as a government hog grader.

Some striking facts and figures were presented at the meeting. Mr. Scotchmer stated that overfinished can be corrected by feeding a balanced ration at all times, but using a ration for growth in the growing period, that is consisting of larger quantities of protein; and a fattening feed in the fattening period, or one containing a lower amount of protein.

A more careful selection of breeding stock and eradication of cross bred and n on registered breeding stock would correct much of the bad type, Mr. Scotchmer stated. Wrong weight was, he said, simply a matter of securing scales and weighing pigs periodically, then shipping when the hogs weighed approximately 200 lbs. empty.

A hog makes the fastest gain in the finishing period, but also it is the most expensive gain, therefore the producer loses due to the extra cost of excess finish, and loss of bonus for grade A, Mr. Scotchmer remarked.

When Youth Faces Life

Every boy and girl reaches the age at which fairy tales and childish delusions are laid aside, and they face the age-old problems of life. These are momentous problems—the problems of themselves, their reactions to life, the course they are to choose, and to what distant goals they are to aspire.

Mistakes made in these early decisions may prove tragic in later years. Youth needs guidance as it comes into this phase of life in which it acquires a sense of moral and u-man responsibility for its acts and aims and the course it pursues in life. Its best guide is religion.

There is no sur r way to fortify boys and girls against the pitfalls of life, and teach them to make wise decisions than by bringing them up under the influence of religious teaching. When people think right, they are very apt to choose right and act right. They go wrong when they think wrong.

The Church is an asset of priceless value, not only to the individual, but to the community and the State. It is the respository of hose moral and spiritual teachings which build character and promote good citizenship. It inspires faith, which is the substance of things hoped for and the evidence of things not seen.

Religion is the guide of youth and strength of every age, and the foundation upon which a useful, successful life is built. — Mt. Forest Confederate.

Former Maxwell Resident Writes From The West

Kelvington, Sask.

Dear Editor:-

When I get the mail, put some wood in the stove, turn on the light and with feet up on the table, peruse the old home paper, I regret to learn of the passing of old timers whose names bring many pleasant recollections. I sincerely extend my sympathy to the bereaved and those who are sick. I am pleased to note Willie Scutt still votes and George Ross presides over the Agriculture Society, the last place I saw him was in The Advance Office revising the prize list. Thanks George, for the address of Rev. E. T. Douglas, our Methodist minister at Maxwell fifty years ago. I had a grand visit with him at Swan Lake last fall. The recent account of Ab Burke's visit to his old home, after 61 years away, brought to my mind the many times he crossed the old Beaver River on his way to Maxwell and the odd stone we fired at the old Miller shanty, for which we were chased with a shotgun. Of the victims of run-away accidents we tried to assist, including Charlie Kerton, his parents and grandmother and team and democrat, whom I witnessed go through the old bridge into the river. But gee, the fire's out and I nearly forgot to renew my subscription, so, with best wishes to all the old tirrers and "The Advance".

Yours for the days of Auld Lang Syne.

— C. M. (Mill) Brownridge.

Plant Maple Trees In Great Britain Cemeteries

Some two years ago the Ontario Horticultural Society, working with the Royal Horticultural Society of Great Britain, sent overseas a shipment of Canadian maple tree seedlings, to be planted in Canadan cemeteries overseas. These trees, according to information received from the Imperial War Graves Commission and received by John A. Carroll, Secretary of the Ontario Horticultural Association, have been planted in the nursery at Brookwood in Surrey, and have now reached a height of from five to six feet and are ready for planting. There are 280 maple trees n the nursery, 100 silver maples, 100 scarlet maples and 80 sugar maples. It has now been decided that, since there are more trees than can be used in the Canadian cemetery at Brookwood, some of them will be planted in the RCAF regional cemeteries at Harrowgate, Chester, Bath, Cambridge and Oxford, where considerable numbers of Canadian airmen have been buried.

In order to provide for the distribution and planting, and also the care of these trees, the Ontario Horticultural Society directors, states Mr. Carroll, have authorized that a sum of money, of nearly $500, now in the hands of the Royal Horticultural Society, and originally intended to provide flower and vegetable seeds for prisoners of war camps in enemy countries, be utilized for this purpose. This money was subscribed by horticultural societies in Ontario, and the original purpose of the fund having been eliminated by the end of the war, it is felt that no better outlet could be found for the balance of the money on hand than to use it for the planting of these maple trees in the places where Canadian men are buried.
