Someone's not so jolly!

One-year-old Jodi Hustler was not exactly thrilled meeting Santa Claus for the first time during the annual Georgetown Girl Guides' Breakfast With Santa event held Saturday at Knox Presbyterian Church.

Mayor says Town set to 'ride the wave'

By CYNTHIA GAMBLE
Staff Writer

The mayor is 'bullish' and the Town is 'riding the wave'—those were some of the keywords from the annual mayor's speech at the Chamber of Commerce Christmas Lunch.

Mayor Rick Bonnette spoke to a sold-out crowd of local business people at the event held at Eagle Ridge Golf Club on Tenth Line Tuesday. It marked his 11th year updating the business community about the state of the town's affairs.

"I hope I have left you with the sense that we are riding a real wave of success. And while we have a number of serious challenges ahead of us, I remain very bullish on the future, but then again, I always have been," the mayor told Chamber members.

Bonnette said the Town has adopted a new economic development branding tool with the theme "Ride the Wave".

"I believe it captures the very real wave of prosperity and change in our community ... we are riding a wave that is enhancing our quality of life."

He pointed to the new Town
