VOL. 65; NO. 42 — FLESHERTON, ONT., WEDNESDAY, MARCH 20, 1946 — W. H. Thurston & Son, Publishers

Died

HATTON — In Markdale Hospital on Saturday, March 16th, 1946, Robert Hatton. The funeral took place Tuesday, March 19th, in Oliver's Funeral Chapel, Markdale, interment being made in Markdale Cemetery.

In Memoriam

NEWELL — In loving memory of our dear father, William J. Newell, who passed away March 18th, 1845.

Today we are thinking of someone
Who was loving, kind and true,
Whose smile was as dear as the sunshine,
Dear father, that someone was you.
If all this world belonged to us
We would give it, yes and more,
To see your smiling face again
And meet you at the door.
You left behind you aching hearts
That loved you most sincere,
We never did, and never will,
Forget you, father dear.

Lovingly remembered by Daughter, Florence and son-in-law, Earl, and family.

In Memoriam

NEWELL — In loving memory of a dear husband and father, Wiliam J. Newell, who passed away March 18th, 1945.

No one knows how much we miss you
No one knows the bitter pain
We have suffered since we lost you,
Life has never been the same.
In our hearts your memory lingers
Sweetly tender, fond and true;
There is not a day, dear father,
That we do not think of you.

Sadly missed by his Wife, Annie, Marjorie and Ted.

Kimberley Took Rocklyn

(By Kimberely Reporter)

In a closely contested game played on Markdale ice, Kimberley defeated Rocklyn 8-5. Joe Gibson scored twice for Kimberley and Wonch got one for Rocklyn to make the score 2-1 for Kimberley at the end of the first period. The second period ended with the score tied 4-4. Jack Falls, Wiley, and Wonch each scored for Rocklyn while Gord Chard and Bill Lawrence got the two Kimberley counters.

In the first few minutes of the third period G. Chard again scored for Kimberley and Wonch immediately tied it up again, getting his third goal of the evening. In the final half of the period Kimberley had a decided edge on the play keeping Rocklyn bottled up in their own end of the rink most of the time. Gibson, Lawrence and G. Chard each scored again to make it 8-5.

Rocklyn: Goal, Elwood Falls; Defence, Yeadell and Jack Falls; centre, Wiley; Wings, Cools and Wonch; Alternates, Gardiner, McKinnon, Clark, McConnell and Thompson.

Kimberley: Goal, Morwood; defence, Hodgkinson and R. Chard; centre, Lawrence; wings, G. Chard and Gibson; alternates, K. Chard, Ellis, Haines, and Kirkpatrick.

Funeral of Keith Cairns

(By Ceylon Reporter)

One of the largest funerals ever held in Flesherton was that of Richard Keith Cairns, held last Thursday afternoon at 2.30 in St. John's United Church, Flesherton.

Rev. Dr. Thomson, pastor of St. John's church, preached a comforting sermon and was assisted by Mr. F. B. Keys, pastor of Cedarside Baptist Church, who read the Scripture and Rev. Geo. R. Service of Hamilton, a former pastor, who spoke a few words of comfort to the family and also led in prayer.

Mr. Melville Buchanan sang "Crossing The Bar".

The pall bearers were: Messrs. Eddie Genoe, Laurie Genoe, Levi Stafford, Isaac Snell, Milford Piper and Clarence Hamilton.

The beautiful floral tributes were silent messages of esteem, among them being tokens from Gravel Road North Ladies' Aid group; St. John's United Church, Artemesia Council, West Backline neighbors, Ceylon friends, Flesherton friends, Lambton-Kingsway Public School.

Friends and relatives attending the funeral from a distance were from Buffalo, Toronto, Hamilton Dundalk, Galt, Owen Sound, Todmorden, Durham, Markdale, Feversham, Thornbury, Collingwood and Holland Centre, and Stayner. The sympathy of this community is extended to the bereaved.

The accident which caused Keith's death occurred while his neighbor, Mr. Jas. McMullen was notching a tree preparing for cutting, while Keith was standing close by watching with the cross cut saw in his hands, when a limb about thirty feet up came loose and fell, striking him on the head. Death occurred about n hour later, without him regaining consciousness.

It takes two to make a marriage a single girl and an anxious mother.

President — Albert LeGard.
Vice-President — Wm. Hemphill.
2nd Vice-President — Bob Brodie.
Treasurer — Kenneth McKee.
Secretary — Dell Thurston.
Executive — Bob Blackburn, Joe LeGard, Geo. Phillips, Dr. Fred W. Murray, Mrs. Edith Phillips, Mrs. Lillian Brown, Mrs. Maddocks, Mrs. Etta McCowell, Mrs. Alva Houden, and Mrs. Mabel MacDonald.

The executive will meet in two weeks to make plans for June 23rd.

Jos. Strain Dies In U.S.A.

Joseph H. Strain, born at Flesherton, passed away at his home at Anaconda, Montana, on Friday, Feb. 15th. He started his career as a merchant as an apprentice in Flesherton. He went to Salina, Kansas, where he met Miss Helena Rutledge, a native of his home district, and was married Feb. 10th 1891. Later they went to St. Louis and Minot, N. D., before coming to Anaconda in 1898.

Mr. Strain operated the Strain's store at Cherry street and Park avenue for many years and became a prominent businessman in the community. His brothers, W. J. and Herbert Strain, operated the Strain Bros. stores in Great Falls, Helena and Billings.

He retired from business several years ago and has been living with Mrs. Strain at 512 Oak street. They celebrated their golden wedding anniversary in Anaconda February 10, 1941.

Mr. Strain was presented with a 50 year pin by Acacia Lodge No. 33, A.F. & A.M., January 15, 1943. He became a Mason in Minot June 23, 1892, and was permitted to join the Anaconda lodge in 1900.

He was an active member of the Rotary club and the Methodist church.

Mr. and Mrs. Strain quietly observed their 55th wedding anniversary last Sunday. He would have been 83 on June 8. Surviving in addition to his widow, Mrs. Helena Strain, are three brothers, Dr. Earle Strain of Great Falls, Dr. J. E. Strain of North Bonneville, and W. . Strain of Palo Alto, Calif.; two sisters, Mrs. Sarah Trumbull, Palo. Alto. and Miss Clara Strain of Berkeley, and a number of nephews and nieces.

The Late Mrs. Guy Hazard

Thef funeral of the late Mrs. Guy Hazard, who passed away on Monday of last week, was held in the Cedarside Baptist Church, Mr. F. B. Keys, the minister, conducting the service, the church being filled to capacity. Interment was made in Flesherton Cemetery Chapel.

The palbearers were: Messrs. Bert W. A. Hawken, T. J. Fisher and John Gibson.

Among the beautiful floral offerings was a spray from the neighbors, and a wreath from the Flesherton Women's Institute.

The late Mrs. Hazard was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Price Teeter and was born on the East Backline, Artemesia, and was in her 55th year. She was married to Mr. Guy Hazard of Artemeisia on February 19th, 1930, who survives, together with one daughter, Mrs. Ted Fawcett, of Wodehouse. She also leaves three brothers and one sister: William and Wilfred of Feversham, Louis of Artemesia and Nettie (Mrs. Harold Morrison) of Toronto, all of whom attended the funeral.

Among those from a distance who attended the funeral were Mr. John Gibson of Durham and Mr. Jim Wilson and Mr. Clarence Alexander of Owen Sound.

VANDELEUR

The Farm Foum met on Monday evening, March 18th at the home of Wm. Ratcliffe, when one of the most interesting discussions of the series took place on the subject "Agriculture should make every effort to increase production and immediate action should be taken to create an international pooling device for the handling and distribution of food surpluses and to stabilize prices to both producers and consumers." The Forum would like to see rationing gradually eliminated, but would be willing to continue after the post-war period, if it would help the world food situation. The secretary reported that the Department of Health had approved the School Dental Clinic and the plan was now ready for operation, also that there would be another film showing in the Community Hall on Friday evening, April 5th. Billie Johnston presided and Dora Boland conducted a couple of contests and gave a reading. The next meeting will be held in the Community Hall.

Thursday afternoon of last week members of the W. I. held a quilting at the home of Mrs. F. R. Boland.

Mr. Reid and family have moved from Meaford to their new home on the 12th line, which he recently purchased from Mr. Jas. Harbottle.

The young people of the community held a social evening and dance in the hall Friday evening last.

In Memoriam

TURNER — In loving memory of my dear sister, Betsy Turner, who passed away one year ago March 19th, 1946.

She was taken with out any warning,
Her going left hearts filled with pain,
But though she is gone from among us,
In our hearts she will always remain.

—Ever remembered by her Sister, Mary.
