

Etobicoke driver gets fine, ban for fatal collision

An Etobicoke man who was found guilty of careless driving earlier this year in the February 2011 collision that claimed the life of pedestrian Donna Reid of Georgetown, was fined and received a one-year driving prohibition in Burlington Court recently.

On Nov. 19 Douglas Wehnde, 53, received a $2,500 fine and 24 months probation that prohibits him from driving for the first 12 months except to take a safe driving course, and permits him to drive only for work or emergencies in the last 12 months. Wehnde, 53, was driving a pickup truck that struck and killed pedestrian Reid, 48, who had a developmental disability, while she was crossing Mountainview Rd. near Todd Rd. Wehnde, owner/manager of Ziebart Uniglass, had just picked up the new truck and was taking it for rust proofing when Reid was struck.

Providing sustainable transportation choices

Halton is working on an Active Transportation Master Plan to the year 2031 to make it easier for people to walk, bike and roll around the Region. The plan will provide Halton with a strategy for infrastructure, as well as initiatives and programs to promote people-powered travel throughout the Region over the next 20 years. Not only will this plan provide residents with more transportation options, it will also help keep Halton a great place to live by giving us the tools to continue planning vibrant communities. Visit www.halton.ca/activetransportation to learn more and provide your feedback.
