VANDELEUR

The final meeting of the Farm Forum winter series was held Monday evening, March 25th, and was fittingly observed when Vandeleur, Orange Valley and Riverdale Forums met in joint meeting in Vandeleur Community Hall, with about 150 in attendance. Following the broadcast the Forums filled in the questionnaire and expressed their opinions with regard to the series and made suggestions for next year. This was followed by a good program, consisting of community singing led by Howard McGee, who also gave a recitation. Readings were given by Miss Maxine Connell and Miss Harvey, music by the Ormsby and Hill orchestras; solo by Stanley Wetherall, music by Morris Lepard and Fred Cooper, and an address by Mr. Ashton, assistant agricultural representative. Howard Graham, secretary of Vandeleur Forum, presided, and Geo. Littejohns, secretary of Orange Valley Forum, and Mr. Garvie, secretary of Riverdale, assisted as discussion leaders. Lunch was served, after which the young people enjoyed a short period of dancing.

The series just completed was the fifth in the history of the Vandeleur Forum and the secretary reports that he has not missed a meeting in five years, and there were only three occasions when a meeting was not held, due to lack of attendance from bad weather. The Forum leaders would like to thank all those who loyally supported the Forum during the five years. The Forum has sponsored such projects as Dental School Clinics, Prevention by Goitre Treatment for School Children, Warble Fly Treatment, Planting of Trees, and educational films.

A moving picture program will be held in the Community Hall Friday evening, April 5th, under the auspices of the Farm Forum.

Mr. and Mrs. Barney Fields of Flesherton were week end visitors with Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Boland.

Mr. Chas. Boland of Walkerton spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Morrison.

Mr. Dane McGee of this community knows how to produce A-grade hogs, according to First Co-operative Packers, Barrie. In the past month sold 26 hogs, 22 being selects and 4 B1. His government bonus for the two top grades above market price was $98.00, which makes the effort well worth while.

The W.I. held their March meeting in the school Thursday afternoon, March 21st, with a good attendance. Mrs. Lundy Johnston, citizenship convener, was in charge of the program. Under the direction of the teacher, Miss Connell, the pupils conducted a splendid debate resolved, "that county life is more entertaining than town life." Donald Brodie and Lorna Bowles upheld the affirmative and Glenora McGee and Gerald Wyville the negative, the affirmative winning. Misses Glenora McGee and Joan Cargoe, and Misses Leona Bowles and Roberta Simpson sang duets and Ruth Graham a solo. Several choruses by the pupils were well rendered, with Mrs. Geo. Buchanan as pianist. A bazaar of miscellaneous items was quickly sold.
