VANDELEUR

A good program of sound moving [illegible] Hall Friday evening, April 5th, under the auspices of the Farm Forum. Pictures shown were Building and Operating a Pipe Organ, Modern Care and Growing of Potatoes, Life History of the Warble Fly, Romance of a River and Review of Outstanding World Events. The pictures are the production of the National Film Board and were shown by Mr. Matthews, school teacher at Desboro, who was substituting for Mr. Lang, the Federation of Agriculture field man. There was a large attendance, and Howard Graham, Forum secretary, presided. It was the last showing of the March program. The April program will be shown in Ebenezer church and the May program in the Community Hall on May 10th.

Mr. Lorne Ormsby has the sympathy of the community in the death of his father, Mr. Andrew Ormsby, who passed away recently at Meaford. The funeral was held on March 29th.

Congratulations are being extended to Mr. and Mrs. Earl Morrison on the birth of a son in Markdale hospital on April 6th.

Miss Dorothy Johnston, who is attending Owen Sound Business College, spent the week end at her home here.

Mr. Schyler Douglas of Edmonton, Alta., is visiting relatives here and renewing old acquaintances in the district.

Mrs. Gordon Wyville spent a few days with relatives in Hamilton.

Miss Ruby Bumstead of Markdale was the guest of Misses Dorothy and Marie Johnston over the week end.

A plucky and courageous pair of boys are Donnie Johnston and Glen Cargoe, who are attending high school in Markdale. All winter long they have driven back and forth, morning and evening, a distance of about seven miles, using the horse and cutter, or horse and buggy as the occasion demanded. Congratulations, boys, you've got what it takes.

Mr. Jim Harbottle spent Sunday with his son, Arnold, and family, who have purchased a farm near Bognor and moved there recently from Meaford.

Mrs. Howard Graham spent a day recently with her friend, Miss Ruth Bellamy, at Owen Sound.
