

Ford unveils Mustang

The all-new Ford Mustang was revealed to a global audience on December 5 with nearly simultaneous live events in Dearborn, Mich., New York, Los Angeles, Barcelona, Spain, Sydney, Australia and Shanghai, China. Featuring a sleek, contemporary design that is instantly recognizable as Mustang, the new sports car features a new fully independent suspension system, a trio of new and upgraded engines and the latest in advanced tech-Metroland Media photo nology.

Man's love for Corolla hits 1M kilometres moved from India to Canada more than three decades ago, a friend gave him a suggestion about purchasing a

Buy a Toyota, Rajah was advised, because they are reliable and last a long time.

Rajah heeded the advice and bought a Tercel, enjoying all 540,000 kilometres he put on it.

Then he tried a Corolla - and has been fiercely loyal to the model ever since. Having just purchased his sixth Corolla a couple of months ago, he cumulatively drove his previous five Corollas more than three million total

That includes almost one million (998,000 km to be precise) on his cherished green 2001 model.

Rajah's love affair with his car came full circle recently when he visited Toy-

Not long after Rajah Sellathurai ota's Cambridge manufacturing facility where his 2001 model was made, met with Brian Krinock, President, Toyota Motor Manufacturing Canada (TMMC) and toured the plant with some of the team responsible for creating his Corolla.

The made-in-Canada Corolla is the world's number-one selling nameplate of all time, with more than 1.3 million sold to date in Canada.

When asked what the key is to having his 2001 Corolla reach about one million kilometres, Rajah said it's really quite simple.

"I am very strict about never missing an appointment for regular maintenance and I always take it to a Toyota dealership," said the father of two grown children. "It never would have lasted so long going somewhere else."

Chrysler Ram to offer new small in 2015

Chrysler's Ram Commercial Truck division has announced it will offer an all-new small van for the North American market.

Joining the larger and highly capable Ram ProMaster as an additional van offering, the 2015 Ram ProMaster City will compete with small commercial and passenger vans.

Based on the successful Fiat Doblo, a two-time International Van of the Year winner with more than 1.3 million units sold, the Ram ProMaster City will encompass familiar Ram Truck styling cues and offer features and powertrains preferred by North American commercial customers.
