Mr. Archie [illegible]cCuaig made a brief speech, welcoming the boys home Each returned man received a sum of money ad an illuminated address, those receiving them being Bob and John Whittaker, Emerson Burnett, Tom Aldcorn, Wallace and Willie Meads. "Auld Lang Syne" and "They Are Jolly Good Fellows" were enthusiastically sung. The choir sang "For We Are Glad You're Back Again," composed by Rev. Mr. Penman, the former United Church minister here. Mr. Halliwell and Mr. Mould each gave a short address and the National Anthem was then sung. Lunch was served and the Sharpe Orchestra from Durham provided splended music for a dance. Returned Missionaries Have Interesting Service

More than capacity crowds enjoyed an evening of Fireside fellowship in Cedarside Baptist Church last Sunday. Even standing room was entirely exhausted long before the scheduled time of starting. In addition to the reugalr seating accommodation, all extra chairs were filled.

An unique feature of the program was an informal interview between Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Keys and Dr. Dorothy Timpany, physician and surgeon in charge of Pithapuram, India, and Miss Evelyn Hawn, Superintendant of Nurses Training School, also at Pithapuram. Questions concerning the peoples of India and their varied needs of medical, physical and spiritual nature were asked and answered. Famine conditions, political trends, war-time shortages, black market, reptiles, hospital work, as well as missionary activities were discussed by those seated around the fireplace on the platform, arranged as a living-room, and flood-lighted for the occasion. The two young women, one a member of a third generation missionary family in the Baptist field in India, were dressed in native saris and sandals. A fifty dollar bill, to be used for famine relief, was presented to them by the minister, on behalf of an anonymous member of the Baptist Church, at the end of the interview.

A silent film strip, showing the hospital at Pithapuram with Dr. Timpany and Miss Hawn at work, was shown, in addition to a technicolor sound film on the Life of Christ "My Beloved Son."

Vocal solos, a cornet solo, a piano solo and duet provided variety and an exceptional range of talent to the program.

DISTRICT SOFTBALL LEAGUE ORGANIZED

The organization meeting of the South Grey Softball League was held in Flesherton Friday evening of last week, when three teams entered and assurances were made that Markdale would have a team in the league. Dundalk announced to the officers on Tuesday that they would also enter a team. The league at present is composed of Vandeleur, Rock Mills, Markdale, Dundalk and Flesherton. Another team may still be entered to round out a six team cicruit.

The officers of the league are as follows:

Treasurer — R. Fitzsimmons.
Executive — The above officers and two representatives from each club.

As the make-up of the league is not definitely known as yet, only one game was scheduled, and the opening game will be played this Friday evening at 7 p.m., when the Vandeleur team will play Flesherton on the local grounds. Following the game the schedule of games will be drawn up. It was hoped to have a team entered from Feversham, but no decision has yet been made to that effect.

IN MARKDALE HOSPITAL

Mrs. Geo. McTavish is in Markdale hospital at present, having undergone an operation last week. We hope that she will be home soon and with improved health.

Picture of Braille Reading

Three Braille volumes are needed to bring one copy of the Reader's Digest to blind readers, and judging from the hearty chuckle these two men are enjoying, the jokes are just as funny as to those who read printed type.

Help provide literature to those whose blackout will never end, by contributing to the tag day for the Canadian National Institute for the Blind in Flesherton, on Saturday, May 4th.
