POTATO STORAGE

In determining the size of storage space required to store a given quantity of potatos, the estimate may be based on forty pounds of potatoes (tubers) per cubic foot of storage space. On this basis, a bin 10 by 10 feet square filled to a depth of six feet would hold 400 bushels.

In Memoriam

PARTRIDGE — In loving memory of our mother, Mary Elizabeth Partridge, who passed away May 7, 1942.

Years of striving, little of play,
Loving and giving the whole of the way,
A cheerful smile, a heart of gold,
The dearest mother a world could hold,
Happy memories, found and true,
From those who thought the world of you,
Loved in life, she liveth yet
In the hearts of those who will never forget.

—Ever remembered by Her Family

In Memoriam

PEDLER — A tribute to the memory of our dear mother, Mrs. John Pedler, who passed away one year ago, May 13th, 1945.

Peacefully sleeping, resting at last,
The world's weary troubles and trials are past;
In silence she suffered, in patience she bore,
'Till God called her home to suffer no more.

—Sadly missed and always remembered by Her Family.

HENRY — MURCAR

A wedding of much interest was solemnized in Erskine Presbyterian Church, Dundalk, at 4 o'clock on Saturday, May 4th, when Dorothy Helen Murcar, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Murcar, Dundalk, was united in marriage to William George "Bill" Henry, elder son of Mrs. G. E. Henry and the late Mr. Henry of Flesherton. Rev. Mills of Waterloo officiated.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gowned in a floor-length ivory slipper satin wedding dress. The basque bodice pannelled with insets of sherring was accented by a sweetheart neckline, and the full skirt extended into a slight train. Her long veil fell from a headdress of braided satin and held in place by tiny satin rosebuds. She wore white kid sandals and around her neck wore pearls. Her bouquet was of deep red roses and baby's breath.

As Matron-of-Honor Miss Lucille Badgley of Detroit, cousin of the bride, was in pink marquersette over taffeta, with a matching headdress, and carried pink roses and white carnations with pink ostrich trim.

Miss Shirley Murcar of Toronto was her sister's bridesmaid, and wore turquoise taffeta with matching headdress and carried red roses and white carnations with blue ostrich trim. The flower girl was Karen Carr of Palmerston, cousin of the bride and she looked pretty in a pale blue marquersette over pink with a nosegay of sweet peas and white daisies. The groom's gift to the bride was a gold wrist watch.

Mrs. McAlister of Dundalk was at the organ and played softly throughout the ceremony.

Mr. Ken Henry of Flesherton was groomsman for his brother, and the ushers were Jack Kennedy of Toronto and Bob Murcar.

For receiving the guests, the bride's mother wore a grey silk jersey costume with fuchsia hat and a corsage of wine-colored roses while the groom's mother chose a navy blue crepe with white hat and corsage of pink roses.

For travelling, the bride donned a garden rose suit with darker shade top coat and black accessories. After the honeymoon to Buffalo and London, the bride and groom will reside in Dundalk.
