FIVE CENT PIECE BEING WITHDRAWN FROM CIRCULATION

Canadians are pleased to earn that the copper-coloured five cent pieces are being withdrawn from circulation, and it is hoped that the withdrawal will be completed within the near future, Finance Minister J. L. Ilsley stated in the House of Commons. The Minister also stated that the withdrawal was being carried out through the chartered banks.

JACKSON KENDALL STEWART

(By Ceylon Reporter)

Mr. and Mrs. Kendall Stewart of the west backline had their home suddenly saddened on Saturday last, when their only child, Jackson Kendall, passed away at the age of one year, his death taking place on his first birthday. Jackson had been a patient in a Toronto hospital for some six weeks previous, but had been at his home the past week.

The funeral was held on Monday, July 22nd, with service at the home of his parents, conducted by Rev. Dr. Andrew Thomson, who gave a comforting message to the bereaved parents and relatives. Mrs. Blackburn and Mrs. Henderson of Fleshrton rendered a lovely duet "Sometime We'll Understand."

The beautiful floral tributes were silent messengers of love and sympathy and were carried by Janet Betts, Norma Eagles, June Adams, Ian and Ivan McWilliam, Douglas and Donald Sinclair and Melville McDermid.

The pallbearers were: Messrs. J. P. Stewart, Eddie Genoe, Wm. Irwin and L. Duckett.

Interment was made in Flesherton Cemetery.

Those from a distance who attended the funeral were: Mrs. Grace Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Stewart and Marjorie, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Jamieson and Ralph, Mrs. Edna Murray, Miss Helen Caswell, Mrs. G. Blackburn and Ruth, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Stewart, all of Toronto; Mr. Clarence White, Waubaushene; Mr. and Mrs. Hartley Blackburn and George, Port Credit; Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Stewart, Lynden; Mr. and Mrs. Mark Stewart, Pontiac, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart are one of our most highly esteemed young couples and sincere sympathy is extended to them by a host of friends.
