Peter Muir Passes

(By Priceville Reporter)

It is our sad duty to chronicle the death of Peter Muir who passed away on Thursday morning, Aug. 15th, at his home. He was 79 years last April 10th and had been in failing health for some time.

Deceased was the son of the late Peter Muir, and Mary Stewart, who were among the pioneers of this community. He was born and always resided on the farm where he passed away. Everything was done that loving hands could do, but he passed beyond the aid of all human care into the hands of a loving Father. Mr. Muir was of a happy and cheerful disposition which won many friends for him. All who had the pleasure of entering into his home felt its friendliness and many will remember the pleasant visits with him. He was a good neighbor, ever ready to lend a helping hand to others at anytime he could. He was a member and an Elder in St. Columba United Church, and was a faithful attendant when health permitted him to go.

He leaves to mourn his sorrowing family: May (Mrs. Harry Huston) of London, Ruby (Mrs. Earl McLeod) of London, Marion of Hamilton. Alice (Mrs. John Whittaker) and one son, Stewart, at home; also four grand children, Archie, Peter and Ruth Huston, and Marion McLeod.

The funeral was held on Saturday afternoon when service was held at his late residence and was very largely attended by sympathetic friends and neighbors who came to pay their last tribute of respect to one who was so widely known and highly respected by all. Rev. Gandier, Pastor of Priceville United Church, assisted by three former Ministers, Rev. C. D. Cox, Bervie, Rev. F. Sullivan, Hepworth, Rev. R. Muir, Corbetton, who spoke very highly of the deceased.

The pall-bearers were Past Masters of the Masonic Lodge: Alex Muir, Chas Bellamy, Wm. Meads, F. Thurston, Roy Piper, Sam McDermid and Snowden McLeod.

The casket was surrounded by many beautiful floral tokens, which bore silent messages of love, and were carried by Brother Masons.

Friends from a distance who attended the funeral were: Mr. Geo. Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Baxter and son, Misses Mary and Annie Muir, and Mr. Peter Muir, Mrs. Wm. Walker and son Alex, Dr. Neil McKinnon and sister, Ella, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Gibbs, Mr. and Mrs. Moore Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Bailey, Mr. Grant Muir, Mr. Bob Sutherland, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Purdy, Mr. and Mrs. Alf Hincks, Alex and Innis McLean of Toronto, Mr. Peter Ferguson, Mrs. Peter Baxter, Mrs. Osborne, Mrs. John Baxter, Mrs. McCallum of Caledon, Mr. F. A.
