CREAM

At all times — the foremost thought in our minds is to give our customers the best possible deal. Whether the cream is delivered by yourself or sent in by truck, you can be assured you will receive square treatment.

We are most anxious that you receive the best possible grade for your eggs, so that you will receive more money for them. In order to obtain a higher grade, your co-operation is necessary.

Eggs

1. Eggs must be spotlessly clean.
2. Eggs must be kept cool — around 40 deF. (possibly keep in basement).
3. Particular care must be given to the feed of laying hens. Too many roots causes dark yolks, hence B Grade.
4. Market eggs regularly — twice a week if possible.

Most of the eggs are now being exported. In order to hold this market me MUST supply good eggs. Try the above suggestions for "more egg money."

12th LINE, OSPREY

Your correspondent had a very welcome visitor last Friday from Macrorie, Sask., in the person of Mr. Melville Holroyd, one of our 12th Line boys who went to schoil at S. S. No. 6, and later moved to the West to seek his fortune on the prairies. He farmed there successfully and later married Miss Alice Holman of Portlaw. I enjoyed his visit very much, talking over old times and old ways of farming here and in the West. The new method of farming in the West is doing away with horses and states that he hasn't a horse around his place. He does all his own work on three-quarters of a section, combines instead of the old steam threshers.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Turner and Mr. and Mrs. George Clark and baby of Eugenia were visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Victor McKenzie.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Badgerow and two children of Singhampton were visitors at the Victor McKenzie home.

Mr. Ken Wickens, our popular man for buzzing wood, is very busy in the neighborhood at present.

The Ladies' Aid of Providence is busy. Last week they journeyed to the home of Mrs. Frank Short and had a very successful day. Mr. Jas. McKenzie had the pleasure of driving those talented ladies to their place of business, in the lanes and out. The president, Mrs. Lorne Tuplin, was present.

Miss Shirley Maxwell of S. S. No. 16 visited over the week end at her parental home. Good luck, Shirley!

Mr. Ellwood Dobson is a very busy man doing the barn work for Mr. Cyrus Short and hauling the wood for S. S. No. 6, he having received the contract at the annual school meeting.

(Too late for Last Week)

Mr. Josh Dobson and mother, Mrs. John Dobson, was over to the latter's brother-in-law, Mr. Joe Dobson, of Ravenna, who is very ill at present. We hope for a complete and speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Melville Holroyd of Macrorie, Sask. is visiting at the home of Wm. Poole. Mr. Holroyd went to S. S. No. 6, 12th line. He married Miss Alice Holman of Portlaw and moved West. We wisl them a happy visit and a happy return to their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Ottewell, Mervin and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Izard were visitors at the home of John Weldrick Saturday evening.

We are sorry to report Mrs. John Tyson on the sick list. She has seen many years in Osprey township, and we hope she will be up and around again very soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Melville Douglas visited friends in Collingwood Saturday last over the good roads, bu oh, the storm Sunday!

L.O.L.1085, Feversham, met their hall last Monday night for their annual meeting. There was a good attendance. It is very encouraging to see 1085 back in its old strength of over 30 members, all with the go-ahead spirit.

We are sorry to report that while C. N. Long of Feversham was journeying to his farm on the 12th, one of his horses dropped dead. Tough luck, but C. N. always looks on the bright side of things.

We tender our sympathy to the Chard family in their bereavemen by the death of their brother, Francis J. Chard.
