The Late Allan C. McLean

(By Priceville Reporter)

Allan C. McLean, former well known and respected citizen of Priceville, passed away in Toronto on Sunday, May 4th, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Percy Chambers. Mr. McLean had been in failing health for some time, but two weeks ago contracted pneumonia, from which he never fully recovered.

Born in the Township of Glenelg, one mile north of Priceville, he lived on the farm homesteaded by his father, Allan McLean, until 1921. At that time, with his wife and family, he moved to the village, where he resided until recent years, when he went to Toronto to be with his daughters. His wife, the former Emma Richardson, predeceased him by 25 years. He is survived by one son and four daughters, also four grandchildren, Marjorie, Mrs. Roy Mason, Florabelle, Mrs. Percy Chambers, Margaret, Mrs. Bruce McKay, Erma and Cameron, all of Toronto.

A service was held in Toronto on Tuesday evening, May 6, which was largely attended by former Priceville residents and friends. The remains were brought to Priceville and a service was held in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church on Wednesdayy, conducted by Rev. Gandier. Interment was made in McNeill's Cemetery.

The pallbearers were: Walter Turnbull, Donald McLean, Robert Parslow, Wreford McLean, Neil Aldcorn and Donald McArthur.

The casket was surrounded by many beautiful floral tributes, which bore silent messages of love.

Those from a distance who attended the funeral were: Mrs. Harry Pedlar, Mr. and Mrs. Ray McLean, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Richardson, Mrs. Mamie McDonald and son, Leroy, all of Toronto; Mrs. Chas. Jones, Kitchener.
