Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Kelso, Dorothy and Velma, of Hamilton were week end visitors with Mrs. Ethel Hutchinson. Miss Velma remained for a longer visit.

(Intended for Last Week)

Mr. and Mrs. Hilliard Fitzsimmons a recent groom and bride, were the guests of honor at a social evening and dance which was held in the Community Hall on Friday evening, June 13th, during which the young couple were presented with a beautiful electric lamp, with the best wishes of their friends for a long and prosperous wedded life.

Several families from Vandeleur

Officer (examining would-be recruit): "Now, my man, what makes you think that you are qualified to become a flying officer?"

Applicant: "Because ever since I can remember my father has been telling me that I am no earthly use."

had the pleasure of hearing their former pastor, Rev. H. S. Warren on Sunday morning at St. John's Church at Flesherton.

Rev. and Mrs. H. S. Warren were week end guests with Mr. and Mrs. Lundy Johnston.

Mrs. Katharine Davidson, who has spent the winter months at St. Marys is visiting with her sisters, Mrs. L. Johnston and Mrs. Geo. Buchanan.

School opened on Monday morning with Miss Ena Adams of Flesherton as teacher, succeeding Mrs. Grandy of Hanover, who has been our teacher since Easter.

Friday afternoon the pupils presented Mrs. Grandy with a tray, prior to her departurn.

Wedding bells are ringing.

A Kentucky man at 97 is learning to play the saxaphone. In our opinion, that's the best time to start practising.

"Why did you get a divorce?"
"My wife called me 'Idiot'."
"That's not sufficient cause for a divorce."
"Well, you see it was like this. I came home and found my wife in the arms of the chauffeur, and I said, 'What's the meaning of this?' and she said, 'Can't you see, you idiot'?"

A new family moved into the neighborhood and Mrs. Fenwick was very much interested in them.
"They seem to be such a devoted couple," she reported to her husband. "He kisses her every time he goes out and waves to her from the side walk. Why don't you do that?"
"Good lord, Grace," replied her husband in astonishment, "I don't even know the woman yet."
