Ross - Duckett

On Saturday, June 21st, at 2:30 p.m., a very pretty wedding was held in Kew Beach United Church, Toronto, when Gladys Hazel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Duckett of Eugenia, became the bride of James Walker Ross, second son of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Ross of Toronto. Rev. Bruce Gray officiated.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride looked lovely in a white satin gown with fitted waist and sweeheart neckline, long pointed sleeves. Her long embroidered veil was held in place by a petal halo and she carried a bouquet of red roses, tied with a white ribbon. Mr. Young played the wedding march.

Miss Vera White, close friend of the bride, was bridesmaid and was wearing a blue organdy gown with short puffed sleeves, pink dead-dress and matching gloves, and carried a bouquet of mixed flowers. Mr. Joe Ross, brother of the groom, was best man. Mr. William McKenzie, John and George Ross were ushers. Mr. Ernest Rivers sang during the signing of the register.

The bride's mother, assisted by the groom's mother, received the guests at the Georgia Villa. A three-tiered wedding cake, with silver trimmings and miniature bride and groom, centred the table. Silver candle holders and vases of rose buds made a pretty setting.

The bride's mother wore a black crepe sheer dress with a pin-checked top and black accessories, and corsage. The groom's mother wore a navy blue dress with matching hat, and corsage.

Guests were present from Eugenia, Maxwell, Markdale and Owen Sound.

Following the reception, the happy couple left amid showers of confetti and best wishes for Muskoka, the bride travelling in a smoky blue suit with black accessories. They will reside in Toronto.

Pedlar - Davison

Decorated with peonies and spring blossoms, Wareham United Church was the setting on Saturday, June 21st, for a very impressive ceremony, when Irene Laverne, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Davison, Wareham, became the bride of James Murray Pedlar, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvep Pedlar. Feversham.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. O. W. Holmes, assisted by Major Pedlar, an uncle of the groom.

Given in marriage by her father, the pretty young bride was attired in a floor-length gown of white satin, with sweetheart neckline and long pointed seleves. The long veil was held in place with a heart-shaped halo. She carried a bouquet of red roses white sweet peas and fern. Her only ornament was a string of pearls a gift of the groom.

Miss Velma Davison, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, wearing a floor-length gown of shell pink sheer, with headdress to match, and carried white roses, pink sweet peas and fern. Miss Marie Jamieson and Miss Evelyn Pedlar made charming little flower girls, each clad in floor-length dresses of mauve flowered white chiffon, carrying a nosegay of mauve and pink sweet peas and white roses. Mr. Ted Pedlar, brother of the groom, acted as best man.

Presiding at the organ was Mr Robt. Forbes, aunt of the bride. During the signing of the register, Mrs. Jack Stafford, aunt of the groom, sang "I'll Walk Beside You." The ushers were Mr. Garfield Lyons, cousin of the bride, and Mr. Wallace Stewart, cousin of the groom.

Following the church ceremony, a reception was held at the bride's home for about 70 guests. Mrs. Wm. Davison, mother of the bride, received the guests, wearing a rose crepe dress with white accessories and a corsage of red roses and white carnations, and was assisted by Mrs Pedlar, mother of the groom, wearing a grey printed crepe dress with grey accessories, and corsage of red roses and white carnations. The buffet lunch was served to the guests by six cousins.

Friends were present from Belleville, Saskatchewan, Sault Ste. Marie and Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Pedlar left by motor for Wasaga Beach and other places, the bride travelling in turquoise blue with brown accessories. The happy young couple will reside in Toronto.

Ball - Douglas

Under an arch of evergreens adorned with snowballs, lilacs and peonies, a very pretty lawn wedding took place on Saturday, June 28th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Melville Douglas, when their daughter, Mina, was united in marriage to Frederick Edward Ball, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ball of Toronto. Rev. O. W. Holmes of Maxwell conducted the service and Mrs. Howard McKee played the wedding march. Miss Mimi Adams of Toronto rendered "Always," after the signing of the register.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in her long gown of white brocaded satin with double net skirt, long pointed sleeves and sweetheart neckline. Her fingertip veil was held in place with a net coronet, adorned with lily of the valley. She wore a triple pearl necklace. Her cascade bouquet was of deep fuchsia carnations, white gardenias and maiden-hair fern, tied with white satin ribbon.

Mrs. Vivian Paavola was matron of honor, gowned in pale blue silk voile with white brocaded nosegays, long pointed sleeves and sweetheart neckline. Her headdress was a pale blue calot of flowers, trimmed with blue net. She carried a cascade bouquet of Eleanor carnations and maiden-hair fern, tied with pink satin ribbon. She wore a double necklace of pearls. Miss Margaret Douglas, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, gowned in yellow lace with double net skirt, long pointed sleeves with sweetheart neckline. Her headdress was a pale yellow calot of flowers, trimmed with yellow net. She also carried a cascade bouquet of Fisher carnations and maiden-hair fern, tied with pale blue satin ribbon. She wore a single-string pearl necklace. The groom and his attendants, Mr Richard Nettleton, groomsman, and Mr. Jack Meron, usher, wore white flannels and royal blue top-coats.

The reception was held on the lawn around the bride's table, which held the three-tiered wedding cake, flowers and candles in silver holders. Pink streamers adorned the table. The assistants at the luncheon were, Misses Isabel Croft, Jean Cox, Edna Twigger and Lorraine Croft.

For the honeymoon trip to Dyconia Villa, the bride wore a deep fuchsia suit with white accessories and a corsage of white gardenias. When leaving she threw her bouquet, which was caught by Miss Mimi Adams of Toronto. Pictures were taken by Mr. Thomas Wilson. Upon their return they will reside in Toronto.

Guests were present from Toronto, Collingwood, Dundalk, Flesherton, Elora, Badjeros and Maxwell.

Hale - Sayers

The United Church Parsonage, Maxwell, was the scene of a pretty wedding Saturday, June 21st, at 2 p.m., when Wilda Ellen Sophia, daughter of Mrs. M. Sayers and the late Mr. Morton Sayers of Feversham, became the bride of James Arthur, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hale of Feversham. Rev. O. W. Holmes officiated.

The bride wore a street-length dress of white silk jersey, with halo hat and white accessories. She also wore a three-strand pearl necklace with matching ear rings and corsage of red roses and maiden-hair fern. Miss Audrey Sayers, sister of the birde, was bridesmaid and wore a street-length dress of pale pink jersey with pink accessories and corsage of pink roses and maiden-hair fern. Bert Hale, brother of the groom, was groomsman.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's mother, when about 25 guests were present. Mrs. Sayers received her guests wearing a grey and mauve flowered silk jersey.

The bride's table was centred by a three-tiered wedding cake, and candles in silver holders. Pink and white streamers canopied the tables and diningroom. Assistants at the tables were. Muriel Weldrick, cousin of the bride,and Yvonne Davidson, cousin of the groom, while Mrs. Frank Shortt, aunt of the bride, poured tea.

The groom's gift to the bride was a chest of Lady Hamilton Community Platet silverware; to the bridesmaid, a string of pearls; to the groomsman, a gold signet ring, and to the waitresses, rose bowls.

Leaving on a motor trip to Niagara and Muskoka, the bride wore a three-piece grey suit with black accessories.
