RESPECTED KINDERSLY PIONEER PASSES SUDDENLY

Kindersly Clarion

One of the largest funerals in the history of Kindersley paid tribute to the esteem in which this community held the late Charles R. S. Stewart one of Kindersley's earliest pioneers and most prominent businessmen, Mr. Stewart was stricken at his office recently, and passed away during the night.

The deceased was born at Flesherton, Ontario, in 1885, the youngest of a family of fifteen. He came to Kindersley in 1901, and returned to Ontario that fall to marry Eva Murphy. On his return to Kindersly he proved up on a homestead north of the town site, and then opened a real estate and insurance business in partnership with Mr. Andrew Donnelly. He remained in business till the day of his death.

Mr. Stewart was active in every event of the community's life, and served the town from 1915 to 1923 as councillor and mayor. He was Past Master of the Chapter; Past District Deputy Grand Master of the Blue Lodge, and a member of both the Preceptory and the Shrine.

He was a life member and supporter of the church, and served many years as a stewart on the board of the United Church in Kindersley.

Mr. Stewart is survived by his widow and their only daughter, Mrs. Lorne Byrnes of Richlea, Sask. Three sisters and two brothers also survive.

The funeral service was held from St. Paul's United Church, Kindersley with the Rev. H. D. Joyce officiating Over seventy members of the Masonic Lodge, including the District Deputy Grand Master and two Past District Deputies, attending the funeral in a body, and accompanied the remains to the Kindersley cemetery where the last rites of the Masonic Fraternity were held with Wor. Bro. R. Turner officiating.
