After the service the remains were interred in the Maxwell Cemetery.

The floral offerings were beautiful and besides the tokens of sympathy from friends and neighbors was a spray from the Kaiser-Fraser plant in Detroit.

The pallbearers were her five sons and one grandchild and the floral tributes were carreid by the grandchildren.

THE LATE CHAS. ANNETTE

(By Eugenia Reporter)

The Eugenia community were very sorry to hear of the death of Mr. Charles Percy Annette 133 Cumberland St., Toronto, after an illness of eight weeks in the hospital, but passed away at the home of his parents. The late Mr. Annette was a son-in-law of Mr. Jacob Williams of this place, his wife being the former Hilda Jane Williams (youngest daughter.) He was born in Toronto and died on August 4th, two days after his birthday anniversary. The deceased was of a jovial disposition and had many friends whom will deeply mourn his passing. He was well known in this community, as he and his wife visited here on different occasions.

The memorial service was held in the Myers-Elliott Funeral Chapel 715 Dovercourt Road and was conducted by Rev. W. L. Armitage of the Church of the Redeemer, Thursday, Aug. 7, at 3 p.m. Olive Hudson Seely presided at the console of the organ The casket was banked by a great many beautiful final tributes. Interment was made in Mount Pleasant Cemtery.

The acting pall-bearers were all brothers-in-law of he deceased's wife Messrs Ted Gordon, Leonard and Ronald Annette, Thos. Acheson and Ross Lehman, all of Toronto.

Those attending the funeral from here were; Mr. Jacob Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Will Cambell, Mr. and Mrs. Bates Fawcett, Mrs. Ross Lehman who had been holidaying in Kennora and Winnipeg, arrived home a few days before the funeral.

Besides his loving wife he leaves in sad bereavement his parents, brothers and sisters. We extend our sympathy to them in their sad bereavement.

Holidays were designed for rest and recuperation, but most of us need a holiday after we get back to the office.
