Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Plester Honored At Monticello

Friends and neighbors met in Monticello hall on Friday evening, Aug. 22nd, where a miscellaneous shower was held in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Plester (Laura Bruce), who were recently married. The address was read by Mrs. Donald Watson. The groom and bride both made suitable replies, thanking their many friends for all the useful gifts. All joined in singing "For they are jolly good fellows, after which lunch was served. The remainder of the evening was spent in dancing with music supplied by Doyle's orchestra, rounding out a very pleasant evening.

Osprey Fair Lists Out

The prize lists for the Osprey Fall Fair have been in the hands of the secretary, Mr. Dugald Stephens for the past two weeks and have been sent out to all members. This year the Feversham Fair is being held on September 24 and 25, earlier than other years. There is a splendid list of special prizes in all classes and the prizes offered in the general list are worth-while. Write or telephone Mr. Stephens for a list and plan to show at the Fair. The president and directors of the Feversham Fair have done a good job in making the exhibition a good one in the past few years and the greatly increased attendance last year and the extra good show has given the officers and directors extra impetus to continue and make the fair bigger and better.

The Late J. B. McCowell

A great many in this community were saddened by the news last week of the death in Toronto on Monday evening, Aug. 18th, of Mr. John B. McCowell, husband of the former Etta LeGard.

Mr. McCowell was born in Hamilton, but spent the greater part of his life in Toronto, where he was employed by the C. N. R. for some forty years. Although the deceased never resided in Flesherton, he was a memof the Flesherton Old Boys and Girls Association and took a keen interest in any activities pertaining to this village, where he was a frequent visitor, Mr. McCowell was of a very kindly and jovial disposition and was highly respected by everyone with whom he came in contact.

Besides his sorrowing widow he leaves to mourn his loss three brothers: Father Jos. F. McCowell and Archibald McCowell of Hamilton and Donald McCowell of Washington, who have the heartfelt sympathy of their friends.

The funeral was held in Hamilton on Thursday, Aug. 21st, when a large number of relatives and friends followed the remains to their last resting place. Services were held in Holy Family Church, Hamilton, where Father J. McCowell sang High Mass, after which the body was interred in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.

The large number of beautiful floral offerings showed the high esteem in which the deceased was held by all who knew him. Among the many floral gifs was a beautiful wreath from the Flesherton Old Boys and Girls of Toronto.

The pallbearers were: Messrs. Kennedy, Gordon Alexander, Vear, G. Kellar and H. LeGard.

The Advance joins in expressing sympathy to the bereaved ones.

Those attending the funeral from this vicinity were: Mr. and Mrs. Bert Magee, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Johnson and Royden, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Best.

Flesherton Advertised By Local Young Men At Ex.

Flesherton was well advertised on Thursday of last week at the C.N.E. in Toronto by seven local young and at the same time they had an enjoyable time. Those in the party were Geo. Armstrog, Harold Best, Jack Bannon, Fred Bannon, Roy Best, Bob Turney and Dan MacTavish. Harold Best's car of many colors was driven to Toronto and perched on the top were the gallant men with special headdress and clothing. The gateman thought the outfit was pretty good and waved the gang in free. They toured the grounds and midway with the car and then parked it all day near the fountain, where all and sundry could read the cards advertising the natural resources of Flesherton and district. The car was centre of admiring crowds throughout the day and evening

Allen - Menary

The marriage of Marjorie Mary, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Menary of Markdale district, to Clifford Gordon Holman Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Allen of Flesherton, took place in Owen Sound on Saturday, Aug. 23rd. Rev. W. G. Wakeford, a former pastor of Harkaway United Church, officiated.

The bride wore a street-length dress of white silk jersey wih embroidered bodice. She wore a shoulder-length veil held in place by a bandeau of white flowers and her corsage was of American Beauty roses, tied with silver ribbon.

Miss Eunice Allen, sister of the groom was bridesmaid, and wore a pastel blue silk jersey, with matching headdress. Her corsage was of pink roses.

Jim Menary of Woodstock, brother of the bride, assisted the groom.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Morrison Inn, Owen Sound, for about thirty immediate relatives. The bride's mother, assisted by the groom's mother, received the guests. A three-tiered wedding cake, flanked by burning white tapers and bowls of pink summer flowers, graced the bride's table. The rooms were tastefully decorated for the occasoin with pink and white gladioli. The waitresses were four girl friends of the bride, Viola Clark, Eunice Seabrook, Myrtle Smart and Ethna Halbert. During the dinner hour the groom's brother, Lloyd, of Hamilton, sang "Blest be the tie that binds."

The groom's gift to the bride was a handsome gold wrist watch, to the bridesmaid a matching set of rhinestone pins and to the best man a collar and tie pin sett.

Later the young couple left amid showers of confetti for a honeymoon trip to Toronto, Niagara and other points, the bride travelling in a rosewood wool suit with black accessories. On their return they will reside on thegrooms farm near Flesherton.

PRESENTATION FOR PORTLAW YOUNG COUPLE

(Portlaw Reporter)

A large crowd of friends and neighbors gathered at the Orange Hall, Maxwell, on Tuesday evening, August 19th, to honor Mr. and Mrs. Bob Meldrum on their recent marriage. Dancing was enjoyed during the evening, with music supplied by the 'Fourth Line orchestra. Miss Shirley Buckingham read a well-worded address and a studio couch was presented to the young couple. Bob made a fitting reply on behalf of Kathleen and himself.

Card of Thanks

I wish to thank all those who sent cards, letters, treats and for kind enquiries, also the nurses, who were so kind to me during my stay in the Markdale Hospial.

Freckles Paid Off For Flesherton Young Lad

No doubt for the past several years a young Flesherton lad has wondered just why he was blessed with myriad of freckles, but he found out one reason why at the Canadian National Exhibition on Monday of last week, when he won the freckle contest for boys and was crowned King of the freckled kids. In doing so he won a prize of $25.00, which is well worth while. The was Pat Stauffer, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Stauffer. But Pat has not let his freckles take away any enjoyment in life and his winning disposition and ready smile makes him a favorite with everybody in town, who are pleased to know of his success in the competition. Nobody notices Pat's freckles, anyway, when they see him smile.

Pallett - MacTavish

St. John's United Church, Flesherton, was decorated with baskets of gladioli for the marriage Saturday, August 23rd, at 4 p.m., of Muriel Jean MacTavish, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George MacTavish, and Frederick Roy Pallett, son of Mrs. Pallett and the late Roy Pallett of Dixie. Rev. A. G. Macpherson heard the marriage vows in a double ring ceremony, and Miss Frances Buchanan played the wedding music, which consisted of Wedding Chansonette and Rustic Weding Scene by Ashfield; Schuber's Serenade, Lohengrin's Bridal Chorus and Mendelssohn's Wedding March. She wore a floor-length soft blue nylon sheer dress with fitted bodice and full skirt. In her hair she wore a band of fresh flowers. Melville Buchanan was the soloist, singing 'The Lord's Prayer" and "Through the Years."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a graceful gown of gardenia white satin fashioned with a sheer yoke, portrait neckline edged with a bertha of gurpure lace. Her Vivtorian bodice and long tight sleeve were also trimmed with lace. A French drape lent detail to her full skirt and ended in a long, graceful train. Her fingertip veil was held by a Mary Queen of Scots headdress. The bride carried a cascade of white gladioli and stephanotis and wore a triple strand string of pearls, the gift of the groom.

Miss Evelyn MacTavish was her sister's maid of honour, while Miss June Pallett, sister of the groom and Miss Vivian Cuff, were bridesmaids The attendants were becomingly gowned in moire taffeta, styled with sweetheart necklines and fitted bodie. Soft peplums, caught by large bows, fell over their full skirts. The maid of honor was in canary yellow, while the bridesmaids wore aqua green. Their bouguets were fashioned with pastel summer flowers. They wore bands of fresh flowers in their hair. Little Margaret MacTavish was flower girl, gowned in white net styled with fitted bodice and full skirt. She carried a miniature nosegay and wore a Mary Queen of Scots headdress.

Jack Whiting was the groomsman, and the ushers were John Pickett and Ted MacTavish.

The reception for about sixty-five guests was held in the Fraternal Hall with the St. John's Ladies' Aid catering. The hall was decorated with pink and white streamers, bells, gladioli and sweet peas. The bride's mother received her guests wearing an aqua green dress with black accessories. She was assisted by Mrs. Pallett, who wore a dove grey dress with navy accessories.

The bridal couple left for a honeymoon in Northern Ontario. The bride chose a burgundy rose suit of gabardine and black accessories for travelling and she wore a corsage of gardenias. Later they will live in their new home on the Dundas Highway.

Out of town guests were present from Toronto, Oshawa, Johnstown, N.Y., Wasaga Beach, Vancouver, B. C., Peterboro, North Bay and Oakville.

L. G. Wells Passes

Lawrence Grant Wells, editor and publisher of the Dresden Times, died at Dresden on Monday, Aug. 18th, after an illness of two days. He was married to the former Edna M. Caswell of Flesherton, who survives, together with three daughters. Mr. Wells was well known in this locality where he has visited at various times and his friends here were sorry to hear of his sudden passing. Much sympathy is extended to his widow and family.

Proton Anniversary Services Held Sunday

Proton Station United Church was filled both morning and evening on Sunday last, August 31st, when the congregation celebrated the church anniversary. Rev. R. V. Wilson, D. of 1st Ave. United Church, Orangeville, was the guest preacher and gave two splendid sermons. He appealed to his hearers to decide for Christ as the only way to experience the wisdom and the power of God. Rev. Mr. Wilson also rendered two violin solos, which were greatly appreciated. Miss Shirley Hindle and her junior choir provided four very enjoyable numbers. The church alter was decorated with a profusion of late summer flowers and was beautiful to behold. Rev. A. G. Macpherson, minister of Flesherton pastoral charge, conducted the joint cerviceat Orangeville in the morning, but returned in time to lead in the evening service at Proton Station.

Tragedies Of Nature

(By Vanedleur Reporter)

There are ragedies in nature, and one of them takes place every year on your correspondent's farm. There is a beaver meadow on the back of the place, which in reality is a small lake during part of the year with overflow into the Saugeen River, and many fish consider it an excellent place to spawn. As the dry weather sets in the overflow stops, and as the lake gradually dries up thousands of little fish, tadpoles, etc., are left high and dry. It is a tragedy for the fish, but the cranes, herons, bitterns, kingfishers, racoons, etc., have a real harvest.

Card of Thanks

Mrs. John B. McCowell and brothers of the late Mr. McCowell, wish to thank their relatives and friends for their sympathy and acts of kindness, cards and beautiful floral tributes extended to them during the illness and death of a loving husband and brother.

Card of Thanks

Mr. Geo. White and Son wish to express their appreciation of the assistance of neighbours, the people of Flesherton and the Flesherton Fire Dept. at his recent fire, and especially to Ward Harrison who rescued the horses, calves and harness at considerable danger to himself.
