BUYERS' STRIKES

Buyers' strikes have been blossoming across Canada along with Autumn flowers. It is a good sign. It marks the end of the black market delusion. The good old law of supply and demand is coming back.

Many recent buyers' strikes appear to have been aimed in the wrong direction. When producers advanced their prices either on account of increased taxes or the ending of subsidy payments, the producers became the target of the strikers' attention.

Some producers were bold enough to pay for advertising space to tell the public the story behind their increases. Subsidies do not lower costs They are simply another method of paying the price. When the government ceased paying subsidies, their costs of operation go down, but governments are overly beset with requests for this service and that service, so that instead of refunding the cost or lowering the tax rate, the subsidy funds are diverted too frequently to other channels or services.

The wealth of the country comes from production. Governments are collectors and distributors and not producers. Take Sales Tax for instance, that adds 8 per cent. to the price of nearly everything we buy. Excise and luxury taxes increase prices, but so long as we insist on making government more expensive, the price must be paid somehow. How often the buyers who go strike against higher prices are the same buyers who demand government assistance, we do not know, but we do know that the sooner Canadians learn that goods and services have to be paid for by governments through themselves. the better. — Hanover Post.

Mrs. P. Thibaudeau Dies

A natve of Artemesia Township and a resident of Markdale district for many years, Mrs. Peter Thibaudeau passed away at her home in Toronto very suddenly at 1:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon. She had been residing in Toronto for the past 15 years, and although not in good health she had been doing her household duties up to the time of her death.

She is survived by three children Mabel, Mrs. Elgin Copeland of Paris, Ontario, Gordon of Toronto and Miss Edna at home. Mrs. Thibaudeau was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Stewart of Ceylon, pioneer residents. She was born at Ceylon and after her marriage moved to her husband's farm a mile and a quarter south of Markdale, were her husband predeceased her. She continued living on the farm until she moved to Toronto 15 years ago.

Mrs. Thibaudeau was a member of the Markdale United Church, and was very well known in this district. She reached her 75th birthday this month. The funeral was held in Markdale on Tuesday afternoon from the home of her nephew.

Surviving in addition to her son and daughters are her brothers, William of Toronto and John of Flesherton, and two sisters, Mrs. J. B. Thibaudeau of Markdale and Mrs. Alex. McCrae of Windsor.

EVERY LONG DISTANCE operator has every telephone literally at her fingertips. Through her switchboard and over a network of lines and cables, she reaches out across the country — or across the world!

Every month we are adding some 10,000 new telephones, catching up with unfilled orders as materials become available. More telephones mean more calls — both local and long distance. To-day our operators are handling more long distance traffic than ever before.

Our aim is continuous improvement — better service. More service plus better service — and always at the lowest possible cost — means greater value to every telephone user.
