A Message of Importance to Cream Producers

Since Ceram is an exceptionally good price, it is worth-while to maintain the maximum production of your dairy herd. Nothing will cut produrtion more sharply than the producing cows being left out during the unexpected cold nights. It is, therefore, advisable to stable the milch cows at night from now on.

Poultry

We are in the market for large quantities of poultry. We buy them alive or dressed, or do custom killing.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Dougal McDougall was held on Monday, at her late residence. Mrs. McDougall (Sara Ann Morrow) was the daughter of Tom and Elinor Morrow. She has been in failing health the last few years, and three weeks ago was taken to Durham hospital. Wednesday of last week she took a stroke and passed away Saturday afternoon in her 84th year. 34 years ago last December she was married to Dougall McDougall and resided all her married life in Priceville. She was a good neighbor and friend to all. She leaves to mourn her passing, her sorrowing husband and two twin brothers, William of Dundalk and Samuel of Petersburg. Much sympathy is expressed for the sorrowing husband, as he is not very well at present.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Rawson, who were visiting last week at the home of D. Campbell, left Wednesday mornning for their home at Flin Flon, Manitoba.

The October meeting of the W. I. was held Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. G. Whyte, with 34 ladies present, and Mrs. Malcolm McLean, the president, presiding. After the usual opening exercises Dr. J. E. Milne of Flesherton, as guest speaker, gave a health talk, which was very helpful and informative. Mrs. John Whyte gave a splendid paper on "Community Centre," and Carman Whyte gave two songs with guitar accompaniment. Mrs. Malcolm McLean was appointed as delegate to the convention in Toronto in November. The roll call was answered by giving a pickle recipe and a sample of pickles. The meeting closed with the Mizpah benediction.

BUCKINGHAM

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brownridge and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Haugh and Eleanor attened a reunion dinner for the Fletcher family at the home of Rev. Albert Mills in Collingwood on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Buckingham of Maxwell visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Herb Hawton and son, Jim.

Miss Doris Smth and friend of Barrie spent a recent week end at her home here.

Visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Haugh on Sunday were: Mr. and Mrs. Norman Haugh and family of Collingwood and Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Brownridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Elwyn Ferris and family of Victoria Corners were recent visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Alf Hawton and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Ralph and daughter, June, visited recently with Mrs. Ralph's brother and family, near Stayner.

VICTORIA CORNERS

An impressive Communion service was conducted by our pastor, Rev. A. G. Macpherson, at Inistioge United Church on Sunday afternoon. Four persons were greeted into the membership of the church, two by certificate, namely: Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Walker and two of our young people, Misses Hazel Walker and Peggy Linton.

Miss Marjorie Stevens attended the teachers' convention held in the Royal Ontario Museum, Toronto, on Friday, travelling chartered bus.

Mr. and Mrs. George Moore and Garry motored to Smithville Tuesday, returning Thursday. On Wednesday they attended the wedding of the former's cousin, Mr. Gordon Killins, and Miss June St. John, both of Smithville.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Gallaugher attended church service in Dundalk United Church, when Rev. Richard Rutledge, a former Victoria Corners resident, now of Western Canada, was the speaker. Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Stevens of Dundalk returned with them and will spend a short time with them. Miss Raye Smith, Elora, was also a Sunday visitor in the same home.

MAXWELL

The Maxwell United Church W. A. met at the home of Mrs. Hammil on Thursday, when there was a good attendance. Plans were made for quilting two quilt tops and arrangements made for a bazaar later on. The program convener, Mrs. George Morrison, provided a short program. Mrs. Angus Morrison and Mrs. Geo. Ross were presented with gifts of lovely cups and saucers and complimentary address was read by Mrs. Holmes. Taken by surprise, the ladies thanked the members of the W.A. for their gifts and the kind address.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kerton of Collingwood called on friends Sunday.

Mrs. Ethel Eakins of Millbrook visited her sisters, Mrs. Geo. Ross and Mrs. J. Black, recently.
