St. John's W.M.S.

The annual Thanksgiving meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society was held in the basement of the church on Friday evening, Oct. 17, at eight o'clock. The ladies of St. John's United Church were their guests, with a good attendance.

"Wits End Corner", an interesting poem was recited by Mrs. Hutchinson. Mrs. A. Henderson rendered a beauiful solo "I'm Building a Home."

Heather Macpherson, Nadine Cook, Marion Stuart and Margaret Macpherson along with some of the members, entertained with a short play in two acts, "Unpacking the Bale" which showed how really needful are the bales.

Mrs. Macpherson then gave her review on Mrs. Agnew's talk on conditions in Europe which was well worth hearing. She told how, in China it was necessary to sacrifice one child in order to save two other children, in England how children of one family visited their grandparents during the daytime, where there was a little fuel, in order to keep warm and told also of the people of Vienna rather starve to death, had mass suicides when the gas was again turned on. The meeting was then closed and sandwiches, tarts and tea served.

Mrs. Alex. Morrison Passes

A life-long resident of Osprey Township, in the person of Mrs. Alex. Morrison, passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ed. Hillock, at Stayner on Thursday of last week, October 16th, in her 86th year. Mrs. Morrison had been in failing health the past few years, but was bedfast only two months. She was tenderly cared for by her family, who have the sympathy of a host of friends in their bereavement.

The late Mrs. Morrison was formerly Catherine McFadyen, daughter of the late Alexander and Effie McFadyen, pioneers of Osprey, and was born at McIntyre. She married Alexander Morrison, who predeceased her in 1940, and to them were born twelve children, ten of whom mourn the passing of a loving mother: Emma, Mrs. Ed. Hillock, Stayner; Ella, Mrs. O. Sainsbury, Owen Sound; Christena, Mrs. R. D. Henry, Toronto; Elizabeth, Mrs. Wm. Kendall, Singhampton; Minnie, Mrs. A. Turnbull, Hartney, Man.; Elsie, Mrs. Fred Barber, Flesherton; Hazel, Mrs. O. Madjic, New York; Ethel, Mrs. Cecil Barber, Durham; John, Vancouver, B.C.; and Ernie of Collingwood. She also leaves one sister, Mrs. Annie Bennett, of Muskoka.

The late Mrs. Morrison was highly regarded throughout her entire life by many friends, and was active in her younger days and advisor to all who needed her assistance, especially when conditions were much more primitive than they are now.

The funeral was held on Saturday Oct. 18th, conducted by Rev. Robt. Graham of Stayner, assisted by Rev. O. W. Holmes at the cemetery. Two of the favorite hymns of the deceased were sung "Safe in the Arms of Jesus" and "Shall We Gather at the River," while her niece, Mrs. Burnette read Mrs. Morrison's favorite poem "Crossing The Bar." Interment was made in McIntyre Cemetery, within a short distance of her birth-place.

The pallbearers were: five grandsons: Mervyn Kendall, Bill Findlay, Doward Henry, Billie Morrison, Don Morrison and a nephew Leslie Smith.

Among those who attended the funeral were: Mrs. Jeanette Snyder and Mrs. Kate McKinnon of Orillia; Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Henry, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Burnette, Ed. Small, Mrs. Turner, Mrs. Sammons, all of Toronto; Sophia and Mamie Findlay, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Findlay, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Caldwell, all of Owen Sound; Mrs. E. Schenk, Mrs. Myrtle Schenk, Mrs. Campbell, Durham; Elsie Morrison of Toronto; Mrs. Alex. Morrison and Mrs. Wm. Brown, Holstein; Mrs. Petit, Stratford; Mr. and Mrs. Billie Morrison, London.

In Memoriam

TEETER — In ever loving memory of our parents, Martin and Elizabeth Teeter, who died May 2nd, 1930, and October 23rd 1945, respectively.

The world may change from year to year,
And friends from day to day,
But never will the ones we loved
From memory pass away.

—Lovingly remembered by The Family.

JAMIESON — In loving memory of our dear brother, James Jamieson, who passed away October 25th, 1946,

A helping hand to all he knew,
He was so kind, so generous and true true;
On earth he nobly did his best,
Grant him, Jesus, heavenly rest.

Lehman - Regan

Parkdale United Church, Toronto, was decorated with autumn leaves and palms for the marriage on Saturday, Oct. 11th, at four p.m., of Ellen May (Masie) Regan, daughter of Mrs. Reta Regan, to John Hedley Ross Lehman, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Ross Lehman, of 924 Dovercourt Road, Toronto. Rev. Keith MacMillan, a former pastor of St. John's United Church, Flesherton, officiated at the wedding ceremony.

Given in marriage by her grandfather, Mr. Wes Buskin, also of Flesherton, the bride wore a floor length gown of white French brocoded silk in princess style with fingertip veil held by coronation head dress of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of red roses with long white and red streamers. The wedding music was played by Mrs. Williams.

The bride's attendant, Miss Marge Hanson, wore a gold taffeta dress with small matching hat, lime green veil and lace mittens to match. She carried a bouquet of roses and mauve 'mums. Bill Cook was broomsman, and the ushers were James Coulter and Ted Wolfrey.

The reception was held at the home of the bride, 1052 King St. West. The bride's mother received her guests, wearing a purple crepe dress with black accessories, and a corsage of yellow roses and baby 'mums. The groom's mother assisted, in Queen's blue dress with gray accessories, and wore a corsage of coral roses.

At the reception, several pictures of the bridal couple and their attendants were taken, after which toasts were made to the bride and groom and their mothers. A delicious luncheon was then served to about sixty guests. Those from out of town included Mrs. Wm. Blewett, aunt of the bride, from Memphis, Tenn.; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Lehman, Colombus, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Wilmot Buskin, Guelph; Mr. and Mrs. Milton Bannon, Flesherton; Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Campbell and Mr. Jake Williams, Eugenia, the latter grandfather of the groom.

Amid showers of confetti and best wishes, the newly-weds left for a honeymoon in Winnipeg with Mr. and Mrs. Davies, uncle and aunt of the groom. The bride wore a three-piece beige suit with black accessories. The groom's gift to the bride was a diamond-set wrist watch. On their return they will reside in Toronto.

STEPHENS — SOMERS

Sunny autumn weather prevailed on Saturday morning, October 11th, for the marriage of Kathleen, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Somers, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Somers and Tom Stephens, eldest son of Mr. D. Stephens and the late Mrs. Stephens, all of Feversham, who pledged their vows in St. John's R.C. Church, Dundalk, at 11 a.m. Rev. Dr. McKenna performed the ceremony.

The winsome bride wore a traditionally styled floor-length gown of white slipper satin, featuring a sweetheart neckline, with fitted bodice and full skirt. Her finger-tip veil of white embroidered tulle cascaded from a halo of orange blossoms.

She carried a mixed bouquet of roses, dahlias, gladioli and bouvardia, and was attended by her sister, Helen, in a floor-length gown of pale blue nylon with nosegay of white roses, while the groom was supported by Mr. Vincent Somers, brother of the bride.

The groom's gift to the bride was a heart-shaped blue silver locket; to the bridesmaid, a musical powder box, and to the best man a Ronson lighter. Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, 8th Line, Osprey, where the bride's able was decorated with a four-tier wedding cake and dinner was served to the immediate families of the bride ond groom.

For the honeymoon trip to Northern Ontario, the bride donned a striped grey woof with turquoise blouse and black accessories. On their return they will reside on the groom's farm near Feversham, where the best wishes of a host of friends4 go with them.

PRE-NUPTIAL SHOWER

Thursday, Oct. 9th, Kathleen was honored at her home prior to her marriage, when Misses Elizabeth Murphy and Eliza Haley entertained the 8th Line, Osprey, friends. The bride-to-be was showered with many useful and beautiful gifts.

TENDERS WANTED

VILLAGE OF FLESHERTON

An Open Letter to The People of Grey County

Woodland is one of the most important assets that we have in the County of Grey. Within the last fifty years of the life of this County we have seen so many fine woodlots disappear from land which is not suitable for farming that an alarming area is becoming unproductive; at the same time lumber supplies dwindle, soil erosion increases and many of our spring creeks no longer run freely.

Almost ten years ago we began purchasing waste land and with the co-opertion of the Ontario Department of Lands and Forests have been replanting, while much of our effort is being wasted as the result of a ruthless policy of exploitation and clear cutting natural forest land.

We have, therefore, found it necessary to enact legislation, namely By-law No. 1555, To Restrict and Regulate the Cutting of Forest Trees in the County of Grey, copies of which are available at the County Clerk's Office, Court House, Owen Sound, and to appoint The Trees Conservation Commmission of the County of Grey, Mr. John McGirr, R.R. No. 2, Durham, and Mr. James Davidson, Feversham, to restrict indescriminate cutting of forest trees to ensure the future prosperity and well being of our County.

We realize that this action may seem drastic to some people, but upon applicatioon to the County Clerk each case will receive careful consideration of our Commissioners.

We earnestly desire to enlist the co-operation and support of all citizens in this conservation measure, in the belief that it will be in the best interests of the community at large.
