In Memoriam

LEVER—In loving memory of our dear mother, Tessa Lever, who passed away October 28th, 1945, and also Dad, Jacob A. Lever who passed away June 14th, 1941.

The world may change from year to year
And frends from day to day,
But never will the ones we loved
From memory pass away.

—Lovingly remembered, Luella, Jack and Marjorie Brackenbury.

In Memoriam

SAYERS—In loving memory of a dear husband and father, Morton F. Sayers, who passed away October 26th, 1945.

Memories always wander
When twilight shadows fall,
Back to the days of happiness,
Days beyond recall.
When a vision comes before us,
So calm, so dear, so sweet
Of those dear lips so silent
Whose eyes were closed in sleep.

ON WITH THE DANCE! LET JOY BE UNCONFINED

Chief Illingworth has informed us the Grey and Bruce Police Association is holding a dance in Walkerton on the 29th of this month. In fact he called around and gouged the price of a ticket out of us, with a warm invitation to attend the dance.

We haven't yet made up our mind. With us, the spirt is willing, but the old legs don't seem to function as we thought they used to. At that if should not be too hard for us, for all the dancing we have seen lately is done on the flat-foot principle, with the dancers clopping along like a milk wagon horse with the rheumatism. We may attend at that.

Surely there's nothing against a flat-foot editor attending a ball sponsored by the Grey and Bruce Flatfoot Association, and attended by dancers who slog around the floor with about as much grace as a nigger rolling baled cotton along the levee. — Durham Chronicle.

A story that never ends . . .

THE TALE your Telephone Directory tells is never finished. Year after year more names are added, more people whom you can call, and who can call you. Right now we're busy with unfilled orders . . . adding still more telephones just as fast as materials become available.

More people are using their telephones more often. Our constant aim is to make the service better, too, better in every way.

More telephones . . . better service . . . and always at the lowest possible cost. It all adds up to greater value for every telephone user.

Feversham Couple Observe 35th Wedding Anniversary

Friends and the family of Mr. and Mrs. John Hudson of Feversham surprised them on Thursday evening, October 23rd, with a party to celebrate their 35th wedding anniversary.

The evening began with a mock wedding — remarrying Mr. and Mrs. Hudson. The bride had to wear a beautiful floor-length gown of white cheese cloth, with a five-yard train and head dress to match, carrying a bouquet of miscellaneous roses. The bridesmaid, Mrs. James Hudson, was gowned in scarlet mosquito netting and broad hat to match, with a cascade of carrots. Mr. James Hudson, brother of the groom, attended. The men's buttonieres were huge yellow sun flowers and their high starched collars and bow ties were very becoming. The minister attending was a member of the family, reading a fitting sermon from a mail-order catalogue. While the register was being signed the guests fere favored with a solo "I Wonder Who's Kissing Her Now."

The family presented their mother, the bride, with a backet of 35 red roses. Among other gifts was a radio from the six children, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Tate and Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hendry, Miss Burnice Hudson, all of Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hudson, Mr. and Mrs. Burton Hudson and Master Paul of Feversham, all present Thursday evening.

The party was complete with a three-tier wedding cake. Toasts were made to the bridal couple with appropriate replies of thanks.

All their friends wish Mr. and Mrs. Hudson many more years of happiness and health.

Father And Son Banquet Enjoyed

The annual Father and Son banquet was held in St. John's United Church on Wednesday evening of last week, when some 60 boys and their dads sat down to a splendid banquet was served by members of the C.G.I.T. The guest speaker of the evening was Mayor Eddie Sargent, who has been quite a worker with boys in past years, and his address was well received.

A short toast list was prepared and following that to "The King" and the singing of the National Anthem, Jack Milne proposed a toast to the Church, which was responded to by Mr. J. Brackenbury, Superintendent of the Sunday School, who showed that the Church was tied up with everyday life and could not be set apart from our lives.

The toast to the Dads was given by Dave McGee and a splendid reply was made by Mr. S. J. Stauffer, good citizens, and urged them never travel in company they would hate to bring home and introduce to "dad." David Aberdein expressed appreciation of the assembly and thanked the CGIT and the helpers for the splendid banquet provided.

Eddie Sargent, youthful Mayor of Owen Sound, was introduced by Rev. A. G. Macpherson, who knew him as an active leader in boys' work and while with the Air Force.

Mayor Sargent remarked that the happiest time of his life was when he was connected with boys' work. He urged the boys to think for themselves and never be a rubber stamp or "yes-man" to anyone. Canada needs leaders and these wll be secured from the ranks of the boys of today, so never be a "yes-man." He thought that education was wrong when children were sent out into the world without practical experience, and remarked that each boy should possess initiative above all things, but desire was important, and there was nothing in the world that a boy can't achieve if he wishes hard enough for it. The speaker gave several illustrations of material success achieved by many boys. Most of it came from an ideal which was persistently followed out. All opportunities in life will not come unless we take advantage when it arises.

Mayor Sargent spoke to the fathers on the lack of interest in government and urged them to encourage leadership among the boys . He stated that good men could not afford to go into government, which was deplorable as the country needs their leadership. He asked why do we tolerate Communism in Canada, whose leaders were trained in Russia. Stalin would like to have Canada under his domination and was doing everything be could to further that end.

In closing his splendid address, Mayor Sargent urged the boys to chart their course on compass-readings from their dads and they would not go far wrong.

Reeve Ken Betts expressed the appreciation of the presence of the guest speaker at the banquet and made the assertion that he wished there were more boys with the ideals of Eddie Sargent.

P. S. McDougal was an efficient chairman for the meeting and filled in with many appreciated jokes. "Danny Boy" Smith gave several appreciative selections with his electric guitar.

Frankness Of Youth

Many families are embarrassed by the frank remarks which their children make when the parents the entertaining visitors. Youth speaks its mind very freely. Older people learn to cover their real thoughts with polite words, but they have not usually learned that art.

A newspaper humorist told about one youth who was watching a visitor very closely. The visitor asked the youngster why he looked at him so observantly. The youngester remarked that he was just waiting so see him take his glass of water, as his father had said that this man drinks like a fish.

Perhaps many youngesters say equally frank and disconcerning things. They may be thought inappropriate, but if grown-ups more often expressed their thoughts with frankness, some people would get a clearer idea of what the world thinks about their conduct, and there is no influence as great as public opinion. —Hanover Post
