VANDELEUR

The Farm Forum held the first meeting of the winter series at the home of Mrs. Ethel Hutchinson on Monday evening, Nov. 3rd, with Mr. T. S. Cooper of Markdale as guest speaker, and he gave an interesting address on hydro and other problems confronting rural people. Discussion took place as to the best way to interest more young people in the work of the Forum and other community activities. It was suggested that we might make "Beautification of the School Grounds and Community Park" an action project for the coming year. The next meeting will be held at the home of Will Johnston.

Vandeleur W.I. conducted a booth at the Hereford breeders' sale in Markdale last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Ratcliffe spent the week end with London friends.

Three threshing machines are in the community at the present time.

We notice by reports that October of 1947 has set a new record for fine weather and it still continues. Your correspondent has picked apples for one whole month without losing a day, except Sundays, and he cannot remember ever doing that before. He has been at this job every fall since he was knee-high to a grasshopper and that wasn't yesterday, either.

Residents of this district were sorry to learn of the death of a former resident, Mr. Sydney Brodie, who passed away in British Columbia.

Didn't somebody overlook a bet? There's been no increase in the price of animal crackers.

The Late Henry Arnott

Another link with the early days of Wareham community was severed on Tuesday, October 21st with the passing, in Lord Dufferin Hospital, Orangeville, of William Henry Arnott, in his 82nd year.

Son of the late Samuel Arnott and Jessie (Barrow) Arnott, he was born on February 16th, 1866, on Lot 5 Range 1, N.D.R., Osprey, and his entire life was spent within a mile of his birthplace. To few is it given to hold so high a place in the esteem of old and young alike as that which he enjoyed. To practically all in the community he was best hnown as "Uncle Henry," and those in need might trust him with their confidence sure of sympathetic understanding and sound advice. A member of the Methodist Church (now United) at Wareham for sixty-five years, he served his Master, seeking not the praise of man, but quietly going about doing good. His sound judgment was highly valued in his office as Steward and Trustee of the church and for some twenty years he rendered faithful service as Secretary-Treasurer. His chief enjoyment lay in the simple pleasures of daily life, in a quiet chat with a friend, or in the performing of some act of neighborliness. He found deep satisfaction in honest toil and in the fruits of his labor. Of remarkable energy and perseverance, in spite of his more than four-score years. Mr. Arnott put in his spring crop and even helped to harvest it, although since November of 1946, his health was very noticeably failing.

Mr. Arnott, who was unmarried, is survived by one brother, Samuel, of Wareham, and two sisters, Annie (Mrs. W. S. Inkster) of Dundalk, and Jessie (Mrs. Jas. Menzies), who has kept house for her brother on his farm at Wareham corner, for several years. A sister, Mary and a brother Albert, predeceased him.

The funeral service in Wareham Church on Thursday afetrnoon was largely attended. Rev. O. W. Holmes of Maxwell, his pastor, based his address on the text: "The Lord gave and the Lord hath taken away. Blessed be the name of the Lord." Mr. Holmes paid a high tribute to the deceased and to the calm and steadfast faith which sustained him throughout the years of his pilgrimage and which remained his comfort in days of suffering. During the service a duet, "God's Way is the Best Way," was rendered by Mrs. F. Lyons and Renfred Acheson, accompanied by Miss Evelyn Acheson.

Interment took place in the Arnott family plot at Mt. Zion, the following acting as pallbearers: Harry Jackson, Stanley Lepard, Jas. Winters, Will Russell, Will McCutcheon and Roy Fenwick.

Among friends from a distance who attended the funeral were: Mrs. Jack Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Baird and family, Mr. and Mrs. Randall Musgrave, all of Toronto; Mr. Jack Arnott, Orono; Mrs. Gordon Dolphin and son, Gordon, Weston; Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Menzies, Berkeley; Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Hunter Arntt, Mr. Philip Carly and Mrs. Arnott McClure, Brampton and district; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Weatherall, Thistletown; Mr. John Burk and Mr. Howard Burk, Shelburne; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Little and Sharon, Mrs. Howard Grummett and Bruce McCutcheon, Toronto; Mrs. Minnie Montgomery, Mrs. Grace Reichert, Mrs. Elaine Renton, Mrs. Edna McIntyre, Orillia; Mrs. W. A. Morton, Flesherton, and Gordon Jackson of Clarksburg.

"I tell you I won't have this room." protested the old lady to the bell-boy who was conducting her. "I'm not going to pay my good money for a closet with a measly little folding bed in it. If you think that just because I'm from the country...." "Get in, uady, get in," the boy cut in wearily "This isn't your room. This is the elevator."
