A Former Feversham Pastor Gives Lecture

A profitable and pleasant time was spent Friday night, Nov. 7th, in the Presbyterian Church, Feversham, when Rev. Jos. Muchan, a former minister, and Mrs. Muchan, showed lantern slides on thei work in India and gave a very interesting and soul-stirring discourse on their work stirring discourse on their work there. They have been working as missionaries in the Jhansi field in India since leaving Feversham seven years ago and are now home on furlough. Many friends were glad to see Rev. and Mrs. Muchan again and enjoyed their message. A social hour was spent following the lecture. Best wishes and prayers will go with Mr. and Mrs. Muchan in their great work for the Master.

Dr. F. A. Thurston Passes

Word was received on Monday of the death, in Chicago, of Dr Fredus A. Thurston, last remaining brother of the late W. H. Thurston, after a lengthly illness. Dr. Thurston had been a dentist in Chicago for over fifty years where he won for himself a high standing in his profession. Several new processes in dental technique resulted from his inquiring mind and inventive genius.

As a young man, Dr. Thurston had worked as a carpenter in Simcoe county, but ambition called, he went to the fabulous city of Chicago, where he was destined to give a standing in his profession that reflected well on his personal abilities and on his home country. A year or so ago he was presented with a golden certificate to mark the completion of his fifty years in the dental profession of Chicago.

He was born, September 12, 1868, son of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Thurston, on the homestead, 1½ miles north of Kimberley, where his father had cleared a pioneer farm nearly a century ago. Since that time the Thurstons have ewned property in the Beaver Valley, and Dr. Thurston owned at his death the property of the old Travellers Home in Kimberley, where his father conducted a temperance hotel for many years prior to his death in 1901.

He leaves a wife, (nee Cora Lee Goodbue) and two daughters, Mrs. Eleanor Wylde and Mrs. Helene Mason, and his sister, Miss Myrtle Thurston, who assistant in his office for many years, all resident in Chicago.

Dr. Thurston and his family were well known in this district and news of his passing will be received with deep regret by many, as it was in his family circle here.

Born

BESSE — At Oshawa on Wed., November 12th, 1947, to Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Besse (Roberta Leavell) a daughter, Sharon Elizabeth.
