WEIGHT—

MONTH—
Do not sell your poultry at a quotation for the flock. Do not sell at so muchc per bird. That buyer is always playing safe — you are the loser.

Election Card of Thanks

ANIMATION. CONSTERNATION! CONSOLATION!

Monday was a fateful day
In Flesherton, County of Grey,
Elections! And their happy fears,
The first in many, many years.
And questions such as "Can I vote?"
And "Why bother with that ugly dote?"
There were four seats and not one more,
But seven don't go into four.
So three of us are left outside,
Our consternatino hard to hide;
Why we should be treated so
Only the ballot box could show.
Well, we ran our race and had the fun
And now that all the shooting's done
Let's take stock of what we've got
And help along the boiling pot;
We really have no axe to grind
And really can no fault find;
Let's put our shoulder to the wheel
And make the brand-new Council feel
That they have every earthly right
To feel they justly won the fight.
Congratulations to you four
Who'll trod the Vilage Council floor,
And if smoetimes you can't agree
Come tell your troubles to the losing three.

I wish to thank my supporters in Monday's very nice vote in Flesherton. Sorry to have you lose your vote.

VANDELEUR

The Farm Forum met on Monday evening at a the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andy Fawcett with a good attendance and a very interesting discussion took place on the subject, "What's New in Health." The members were not satisfied with the progress being made in health services in this province and favored a National Health plan. They felt that this community was fairly well served by Doctors, Nurses and Hospital, Dentists etc., but was because we were in a posperous district. Their services are paid for and much appreciated, but there was no plan in connection with it and people in less fortunate districts were also entitled to Health Services. The Forum felt that various schemes now in existence were doing good work but in vital matters like heatlh, a larger plan and active leadership was needed, and as in the Warble Fly campaign, some compulsion was necessary Two discussion groups were formed with Aler. Gilray and Vernon Fawcett as chairmen and Miss Wakefield and Howard Graham as Secretarys. Mr. and Mrs. Fawcett gave an interesting account of their trip to B. C. and showed many pictures of the Rocky Mountains and other places. There was a Health Quiz and some stunts. Lunch was served and Alex. Gilray presided. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wilson.
